Planning Luxury Weddings And Special Events Is A Passion

Even when not planning weddings or events professionally, my passion was always working with people. I spent many years as an IT systems trainer, and I always used to love being with teams of people, passing on knowledge and teaching new things.

With my own personal passion for memorable, luxurious weddings in locations that no one would expect, and bringing in my years of experience planning events on the side, my own wedding planning service was born.

Now I spend my days giving my upmost care and attention to make every wedding I plan a perfect one. I believe a wedding is a day to remember forever, and I love to find the most unique locations possible if people desire them.

If you are looking for a high-end wedding that no one will forget, while you relax and enjoy your day, then feel free to get in touch with me today, and we can discuss your perfect day further.

Any Questions About Wedding Planning?

If you have any questions about my services and how I can help you make the perfect day, then please feel free to get in touch, and we can talk about how you want to spend your wedding day.

Why Hire A Wedding Planner?

An Easy Process

The biggest challenge of the wedding is in the planning and management. The months leading up to a wedding can often be a time-consuming and stressful process for people without a wedding planner.

Not only are there many choices to make for a fantastic wedding, but even gathering the options to make the choices can be a time-consuming process.

A good wedding planner saves you the work and time. I know the best vendors who can offer the best options for your wedding. I present you all of your options, and you are free to choose.

Then I get to work, making arrangements, while you sit back and relax.

Efficient Spending

Even if you have a high price range for a wedding, it makes sense to use all of it efficiently, getting maximum impact for your spend.

As well as knowing how to spend your money as wisely as possible, I know the best vendors in the industry, and can negotiate with them to get you the best deals.

An Easy Day

No one wants to be leaving the ceremony while worrying about the day running smoothly. A good wedding planner is in the background every step of the way, taking the weight of your shoulders, and making everything appear effortless, even if there are challenges that no one else ever knows about!

A Helpful Negotiator

Sometimes weddings can lead to conflicts. Perhaps the families either side are disagreeing, and a solution can't be reached. An excellent wedding planner can act as a negotiator, not only for vendors, but for family members too, bringing back the peace and joy to the occasion, and making sure everyone is happy.

Instant Wedding Knowledge

Of course you can spend time Googling every aspect of your wedding, reading reviews and deciding who are the best caterers, the best florist, or who the best DJ is...

Or you ask your wedding planner, who already knows. They should be like an instant Encyclopaedia when it comes to weddings, and they can have all the inside knowledge that might not even be on Google!

Advice From An Expert

It's always helpful to hear from someone who has experience in planning weddings, seeing them unfold, and knows what can go wrong and how things can be fixed. A good wedding planner should be able to advise you every step of the way so that you are guided towards your perfect day.

New Ideas and Extra Creativity

A great wedding planner gives you new options that you would have never even considered. They should take the possibilities for your wedding to a new realm, beyond what you thought was possible.

I work closely with you to make sure your vision is enhanced, and even taken to the next level.
