

Improve the mechanics of these sentences. If possible, make them more descriptive as well.

1. People are lining up to the club, we saw a lot of people then, my friend and me went to eat meal and drink achole the while watching the scene.
 2. He was so good so i thought that why he didn't make a debut. But actually he was an unknown singer.
 3. All families gathered together at my uncle's house on chuseok
 4. We always had been meet together with my cousins at the Chuseok.
 5. I had even no time to drink a water, my throat was dry as a desert, for nine hours I could go out to the toilet only once because all water in my body was evaporate through my sweat.
 6. She didn't exhausted like robot. When we eat something, she stared at our mouth with pitiful face. So my mom and dad were tittered.
 7. I was so confused because there were so many foreigners than Korean people.
 8. Her husband had died several years ago and she caught a serious cancer after her husband died.
 9. After riding on the ride and putting on the seat belt, I finally realized myself.
 10. A memorable event was happened during visiting grandparent's house on weekend.
 11. I have a group of friends gathers every holiday like Christmas, New years day, 설, and 추석.
 12. We can't meet often because they are living in far away from my hometown, so we are meet only twice in this year, and we can eat a lot of traditional food
 13. Another my Chuseok moment was sheep farm. It was my first time watching sheep closely, so I was looking forward to watch sheep. It smelled badly because of the sheep's poop, but landscape was a very delightful.
 14. I opened the oven,a fantastic smell came to my nose, and before I ate, the smell of the tasty food made my mouth watering,they seemed to be delicious.
 15. .It was humorous and giggled all together in half a year.
 16. When I visited the church, I saw a few staffs were getting ready for some food which were crispy steaming-hot chickens, cheesy and chewy pizzas, several packs of rich tomato spaghetti and bottles of piquant coke around on tables neatly, like working aunts fast.
 17. However, my families are not enthusiastic about these ideas, so we just eat together and do not normally spend time together to talk or anything, if there is talking going on it is mostly adults and not fully matured to be an adult but too old to be a child like me and few other cousins, we have our mouth firmly shut as if something is going to burst out of our mouth if we move an inch of it.
-

Improve the mechanics of these sentences. If possible, make them more descriptive as well.

1. People were lining up to the club, we saw a lot of people then, my friend and I went to eat a meal and drink alcohol while watching the scene.

A lot of people were lining up at the club, so my friend and I went to eat a meal and drink alcohol while watching the scene.

2. He was so good that I thought/wondered why hadn't he made his debut, but actually he was an unknown singer.

3. My whole family gathered together at my uncle's house on Chuseok.

4. We always had been meet together with my cousins on Chuseok.

We had always gotten together

We always get together

5. I had even no time to drink a water, my throat was dry as a desert, for nine hours I could go to the toilet only once because all the water in my body evaporated through my sweat.

I didn't even have time to drink water. (, so) ...

For

6. She didn't get (never got) exhausted like a robot. When we ate something, she stared at our mouths with a pitiful face, so my mom and dad tittered.

7. I was so confused because there were so many more foreigners than Korean people.

8. Her husband had died several years ago and she got a serious cancer after her husband died.

9. After riding on the ride and putting on the seat belt, I finally realized myself.

10. A memorable event was happened during visiting grandparent's house on weekend.

11. I have a group of friends gathers every holiday like Christmas, New years day, 설, and 추석.

12. We can't meet often because they are living in far away from my hometown, so we are meet only twice in this year, and we can eat a lot of traditional food

13. Another my Chuseok moment was sheep farm. It was my first time watching sheep closely, so I was looking forward to watch sheep. It smelled badly because of the sheep's poop, but landscape was a very delightful.

14. I opened the oven,a fantastic smell came to my nose, and before I ate, the smell of the tasty food made my mouth watering,they seemed to be delicious.
15. It was humorous and giggled all together in half a year.
16. When I visited the church, I saw a few staffs were getting ready for some food which were crispy steaming-hot chickens, cheesy and chewy pizzas, several packs of rich tomato spaghetti and bottles of piquant coke around on tables neatly, like working aunts fast.
17. However, my families are not enthusiastic about these ideas, so we just eat together and do not normally spend time together to talk or anything, if there is talking going on it is mostly adults and not fully matured to be an adult but too old to be a child like me and few other cousins, we have our mouth firmly shut as if something is going to burst out of our mouth if we move an inch of it.