

Webinars & Skillshares Resource List

Drop links here please, Mykalee! mykalee@blackfarmerfund.com

Date	Title/Link	Summary	Host
3/31/2022	The Wisdom of Black Farmers	The Wisdom of Black Farmers was a community conversation with 5 Black farmers who have paved the way for current and future Black land stewards, facilitated by Karen Washington, Farmer & Founder of Rise and Root Farm in Chester, NY.	Black Farmer Fund, Buffalo Go Green, Farm School NYC, Food for the Spirit, and NEFOC Land Trust and funded by USDA SARE
4/10/2023	Investing for Justice: IG Live Replay	Hear directly from Black Farmer Fund & Boston Impact Initiative's Investment Directors, Charles Wade, and Henry Noël, Jr., about: * What is Impact Investing? * What is BFF & BII's approach? * How to support the work our funds are doing	Black Farmer Fund

Date	Title/Link	Summary	Host
8/4/2023	Community Wealth Building T...	We are conversing about Community Wealth Building Through Collective Decision Making with BFF Community Investment Committee Facilitator, Amanda Everich and Rebekah Williams of Food for the Spirit and Buffalo Food Equity Network. Hosted by BFF Senior Communications Manager, Onyx Ramirez. Topics include: * The History of Community Wealth Building in the Black Community * Different Cooperative Models * BFF's Investment Process * Investee Highlights	Black Farmer Fund
11/27/2023	Supporting the Future of Blac...	Culinary artist and social entrepreneur Omar Tate of Honeysuckle Provisions and chef, culinary cultures coordinator, and farm	Black Farmer Fund

Date	Title/Link	Summary	Host
		manager Laquanda Dobson of Sankofa Farms. The event explored the challenges faced by many Black food and agricultural businesses and provided actionable ways for viewers to get involved and make a lasting impact.

Optional Next Steps

- Sign up for the Black Farmer Fund newsletter to stay informed about programming and funding opportunities
- Join the NEFOC community listserv (farmers email the group to ask for and share about resources/support)