

Thank you for helping us monitor and combat violence and discrimination against trans people in and from Ukraine. Spreading the word helps us make sure that we'll get as many responses as possible – and therefore the highest quality data.

Please share this message and link (tgeu.org/ua-report). If you have any questions, feel free to reach out to amanita@tgeu.org.

Help understand and combat violence & discrimination against trans people in and from Ukraine! A collective of Ukrainian trans activists & TGEU are conducting research to help understand the needs of trans people in and from Ukraine during this crisis. This study also helps trans people reclaim the narrative. Times of war increase gendered violence. While this is well documented for women and girls, the effects on trans people are poorly understood. Not only will this study help us understand wartime violence on trans people, but this research is led by a collective of Ukrainian trans activists and TGEU. It will be about trans people, for trans people, and the anonymised data will be used to advocate for our rights at the UN & EU level. Make a report now, or help spread the word.
