

500+

<https://andersenlaw.com/hypoxic-ischemic-encephalopathy-hie-lawyer-medford-or/>

Why Choose Andersen Morse & Linthorst?

Now that you understand how a hypoxic-ischemic encephalopathy lawyer can help you, you should learn more about the best HIE lawyer Medford OR has to offer. We at Andersen Morse & Linthorst are not just any lawyers. We are compassionate, knowledgeable, and experienced.

Our head HIE lawyer is Kelly L. Andersen. He has more than 40 years of experience litigating personal injury cases and defending the rights of Medford residents. Dedicated and committed, he's admitted to oversee trials at the state and federal level. He's proven that he's undaunted by appeals because he's litigated personal injury cases in the Oregon Court of Appeals and Oregon Supreme Court. In other words, you can trust that he will see your case through to the end. Some lawyers are quick to move onto the next case or even encourage you to accept a settlement. Andersen isn't that kind. He wants to do what's best for you and ensure your compensation is full. As compassionate as he is, rest assured he'll fight aggressively on your behalf.

Furthermore, he's worked out of more than just Oregon. His devotion to helping clients and seeing to it that negligent or malicious defendants compensate you for your losses have taken him to Hawai'i, California, and Washington, as well. Thus, it should come as no surprise that he's the recipient of numerous prestigious awards. He's received a top rating by Super Lawyers. In 2015, he was listed in Best Lawyers and made the Top Lawyer 2015 list. Just the year before, he was ranked in the top 1% of litigators, which he earned from Litigators Awards.

You can also put your trust in hypoxic-ischemic encephalopathy medical negligence lawyer Faith Morse. Super Lawyers named her as a Rising Star consecutively from 2017 to 2019 before her unparalleled work ethic and admirable case results ranked her as a Super Lawyer herself in 2020 and 2021. Avvo has given her a 10.0 ranking as a "Top Rated Personal Injury Lawyer." Clearly, she's a phenomenal example of when knowledge meets results you can trust.

Lastly, we have David Linthorst, a committed personal injury lawyer who loves serving the residents of Medford OR.

To take advantage of your free consultation, please call us at 800-637-6622 or contact us online. For your convenience, we have an office in Grants Pass, OR and Klamath Falls OR. We're also serving Ashland, OR. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to call.

Seeking Damages

If you or your child suffers from HIE, it is more likely than not that medical negligence is the cause. If so, you are entitled to compensation for your injuries. It's never easy for parents to take care of a child who has a brain injury. Aside from the depression, mental anguish, and anxiety you're bound to experience, it is a costly undertaking. Many Americans cannot afford to pay ten of thousands per year for speech therapy, behavioral therapy, recreational therapy, etc. Even hiring a babysitter or caretaker can cost more than the national average because you'll want someone who's familiar and comfortable with tending to a child with a brain injury condition. All things considered, you shouldn't have to foot the bills for a doctor's negligence.

In a medical malpractice case, you may seek compensatory damages for your economic and non-economic injuries (i.e., your emotional harm). A list of potential damages to include in a lawsuit are:

- Pain and suffering
- Loss of enjoyment
- Loss of society
- Lost earning capacity
- Humiliation
- Disfigurement
- Medical expenses
- Therapeutic expenses
- Caretaker expenses
- Funeral expenses