

JUNIOR RESEARCH MEET-UP 2022

The Aletta Talent Network invites all master or PhD students and postdocs working on any topic in the field of public health, to participate in the upcoming Junior Research Meet-up, which will take place on March 1st 2022 from 9am - 5pm on site in Groningen.

The Aletta Talent Network is the young arm of the Aletta Jacobs School of Public Health. As such, the aim of the Junior Research Meet-up is to bring together young researchers from different fields to share their research themes, to exchange ideas, to receive feedback, and to grow the network of each participant.

Those interested in giving an oral presentation of their research can submit an abstract following the guidelines below. Participation in the Junior Research Meet up will be free of charge.

Guidelines:

- The title of the abstract should not exceed 20 words. The abstracts should be submitted in English.
- The length of the abstract should not exceed 300 words and it should contain a clear background, aim, method, (expected) results and conclusions, when applicable.
- Please provide three key words.
- Detailed project ideas and proposals are also permitted, provided that they adhere to the abstract guidelines.
- Authors' details should be listed below the abstract (first and last name of each author and their corresponding affiliations).
- The first author is allowed to submit only one abstract, but can be co-author in other abstracts.
- The deadline for abstract submission will be January 31st 2022, 23.59hrs (CET)
- The abstracts should be submitted via this link.
- Presenting authors of accepted abstracts might be asked to act as discussants of other abstracts and presentations to increase the interaction between researchers of different fields.
