REBELLION Newswire

- The biggest story heading into Volume 72 is the first ever REBELLION Rumble! 30 wrestlers will compete to face Zachariah Baldwin at Volume 75 for the vacant REBELLION World Championship. With a myriad of ways to get eliminated, every wrestler is going to need to keep their head on a swivel once that 2-minute countdown starts and the ring continues to get crowded. In this match we've got former REBELLION Champions, the first ever REBELLION World Champion, current champions, former champions, veterans, young wrestlers looking for their first taste at gold, and so much more. Literally the largest match in REBELLION history. The possibilities are endless heading into this new era for REBELLION Pro. The only other thing we know about this match is that Jacky Rex Daniels will be the first entrant.
- But the 30-wrestler rumble isn't the only match on Volume 72. Anna Daniels will compete for the first time in singles competition against a former New Atlantic Tag Team Champion in Honey Smith. We saw Anna make an impressive debut alongside her husband last week and now she'll look to pick up another win; perhaps even find herself in the tag division soon enough. A division that Honey helped make into what it is today and she'll look for a win too as she gets a chance to reclaim the New Atlantic Tag Team Championships in just a few weeks' time. A win here would be huge for either wrestler.
- With their teams in the rumble, we'll see Barry John Reynolds compete in his first singles match and it'll be against the 6'3", 275 pound mime known as Royston Popplewell. It's no secret who has the advantage heading into this one, but BJR is going to try and keep momentum going for Two And A Half Fuzz as they look to carve out their spot in the tag team division.
- And opening the show will be two competitors desperate for a big win. The veteran Red Dragon Dai Davies has been riding a rough wave the last few months, but he knows better than anyone, all it takes is one solid win to get back where you want to be. For him, he hopes that'll be the case against the Bronx native Sofia King. After failing to capture the Dragonweight Championship, one knows that the fiery King will no doubt want to get back into a title scene and beating a veteran like Dai Davies would certainly help her case.

- The man with the night off is Zachariah Baldwin, of course. But it's practically guaranteed that he'll be in the building and he'll be looking to see who his challenger will be. The revolution that Zachariah and even Zooty Baldz have spoken about may very well become a reality when Volume 75 rolls around. And elsewhere, we wonder if we might get another appearance from the mysterious duo from last week.
