

Fudge Quest Clues

Thank you for participating in the annual Fudge Quest Scavenger Hunt! Find the treasure box and notify the Tourism Bureau to claim your prize. The first 12 clues will be posted here Friday, October 2 and the second 12 clues will be added Saturday, October 3 at noon.

Remember - Please be a good neighbor. Clues are not hidden on private property. Clues will not be hidden where you have to climb or destroy something to find them.

Number	Clue	Status
1	FOUND! This tree is rare, so don't let it stump you. Soon it will be golden amongst the foliage. Just make sure you watch your back, this is where the sharpshooters of Fort Mackinac honed their skills.	Found!
2	FOUND! Follow the route that the British took during the War of 1812. The golfers may swing, the horses may roam but nearby stands a stone that remembers the unknown.	Found!
3	FOUND! In Papa M's park, you can find clue #3. It's hidden somewhere peaceful but somewhere that could also be interrupted by children not so graceful. Look for the Grand Hotel's famous flower to help lead you to the fudge you'll want to devour.	Found!
4	FOUND! Where Sugar Loaf watches over the land, and both Point Lookout and Fort Holmes wait above at hand. Upward you will go, but not quite yet. There's one more secret you need to get.	Found!
5	FOUND! Looking down from clue #12's, clue #5's hiding spot can be seen. Many a couple has wed here and the flowers are so beautiful they are obscene.	Found!
6	FOUND! This lady has been watching the harbor since 1950. You'll find what you are looking for somewhere she just can't see.	Found!
7	FOUND! Go where the past is quiet and still, where we remember the soldiers never to leave this hill. Clue #7 won't be above your head, it's hiding beneath where you'd sit instead.	Found!
8	FOUND! Find the real clue #8 on the original Main Street near Aggie's house. We made it a real riddle. Sorry!	Found!
