

Targets Imperialism

Content Targets:

1	2	3	4
	I can identify the motivations for imperialism	I can identify and explain	I can show how countries used these motivations as justification for intervention

1	2	3	4
	I can Identify the outcomes of Empire building	I can identify & explain whether the outcomes were positive or negative	I can show how they affected the future of that country??

1	2	3	4
	I can identify reasons why it was possible for some to imperialize & others to be dominated	I can identify & explain how it was possible for some to imperialize & others to be dominated	I can show how a country's success or failure affected the country's future

1	2	3	4
	I can identify reasons that US entered the imperialist race	I can explain the different reasons for intervening in the Philippines and Cuba	I can evaluate and explain why the "deals" made with Cuba and Philippines were different

1	2	3	4
	I can explain why the US wanted to keep foreign influences out of the Americas	I can identify attempts made by the US to ensure that foreign influences...	I can show how those attempts/ actions were used to justify US involvement in the Americas

Skills Targets:

	1	2	3	4
Cause & Effect		I can Identify the cause and effect of a situation	I can identify and explain the cause and effect	I can analyze the relationship between cause and effect of an event and make predictions

	1	2	3	4
Evidence		I support my ideas with evidence and I cite my evidence.	I support my ideas with multiple pieces of evidence; my evidence is specific, well-chosen and cited correctly.	I support my ideas with multiple and varied pieces of evidence; my evidence is the best evidence available and is cited correctly.

Compare & Contrast	1	2	3	4
		- I can describe similarities and differences in multiple historical developments.	- I can describe similarities and differences in multiple historical developments. - I can explain why historical developments are similar or different	- I can describe similarities and differences in multiple historical developments. - I can explain why historical developments are similar or different. - I can compare evidence in multiple contexts