

LISTENING PAGE 51 BOOK.

3)

1. Which unusual animal is in Ann's kitchen?

a rat

2. What pet has Ann got?

a cat

3. What pet has David got?

a rabbit

4. What animal is there at Ann's school?

a rat

5. Which is the biggest animal – the brown rat, the white rat, or the rabbit?

the rabbit

4)

1. The rat is darker than Ann's cat

2. The rat is faster than the cat / Tigger

3. In the end, the rat goes into the garden / outside

4. According to David, there are probably more rats in the area / the neighbourhood

SCRIPT.

Si has tenido problemas con el "listening". Vuelve a escucharlo ahora con el texto delante.

Ann: Hey, David ... Can you come to my house?

My parents aren't here and there's a rat in our kitchen!

David: A rat! That's unusual! There aren't many rats in our part of town. What colour is it?

Ann: It's dark brown. Its fur is darker than my cat's.

David: How big is it?

Ann: Well ... I can't see it now ... It's as big as your pet rabbit, I think.

David: Wow! That is big!

Ann: Yes, it's a huge rat! Please come quickly, David!

David: But wait, why do you need me? You've got a cat. Your cat can catch a rat easily.

Ann: Our cat, Tigger? No, she can't. She's lazy and fat. Tigger isn't as fast as the rat. And the rat is smaller than Tigger, so it can run into narrow places.

David: Where's the rat right now?

Ann: I think it's behind the fridge.

David: And where's Tigger?

Ann: She's in the kitchen under the table.

David: OK. I'm coming.

Ann: Thanks, David. Oh, no. Now the rat's under the chair ... Tigger, Tigger! Good girl, Tigger, catch it!

David: Ann? Well? Has Tigger got the rat?

Ann: No, she hasn't. Oh, David, the rat's got small dark eyes and it's really ugly! It isn't as big as your rabbit. But it's bigger than the white rat at our school.

David: Where is it now?

Ann: It's next to the door ... Oh good! Now it's outside in the garden!

David: Good! Close the door. Listen, Ann. Rats live in groups, so there are probably more rats in the area. We mustn't leave any food out and we must tell all our neighbours.

Ann: OK. Thanks, David.