Justin Miller - Chief Operating Officer

Justin Miller is an alum of Rush Soccer as a graduate of the Colorado Rush academy. He then went on to attend the University of Colorado. He played four years of collegiate soccer for the school and graduated magna cum laude with a finance degree and a minor in business management. He is the founder of the Charity Club, a renowned on-campus organization that continues to make a positive impact today.

Justin has a wealth of experience leading the front office of a sports organization. After college Justin was the General Manager for the Colorado Rush in 2014 and then went on to become the General Manager for the USL League 1 team Cedars Stars Rush. After this in 2018 he became the Chief Operating Officer for the USL Championship team Penn FC and is now the current Chief Executive Officer for Rush Soccer's national organization.

Coaching: Currently holds his USSF B license. Awarded Colorado CSYS Coach of the year in 2017.
