

Waiting music:

We Got All the Love, all that we need, to change our world, Halleluia!
We've got all the (love), all that we need. Blessed be! Ooh!
(FAITH/ HOPE/ STRENGTH/ JOY)

Entrance song:

I The Lord of Sea and Sky (in the CCA songbook 3)

A I, the Lord of sea and sky
I have heard My people cry.
All who dwell in dark and sin, my hand will save.
I who made the stars of night.
I will make their darkness bright.
Who will bear My light to them?
Whom shall I send?

Here I am Lord, Is it I Lord?
I have heard You calling in the night.
I will go Lord, if You lead me.
I will hold Your people in my heart.

B I, the Lord of snow and rain
I have born my people's pain.
I have wept for love of them, they turn away.
I will break their hearts of stone.
Give them hearts for love alone.
I will speak My word to them.
Whom shall I send?

C I, the Lord of wind and flame
I will tend the poor and lame.
I will set a feast for them; my hand will save.
Finest bread I will provide,
Till their hearts be satisfied
I will give My life to them.
Whom shall I send?

Penitential Rite:

spoken by a priest/volunteer:

Creator God,
you have clearly stated that true worship of you is to care for our Common Home and all who inhabit it.
but we have sacrificed Mother Earth and all who inhabit it to the 'idols of finance'.

spoken by a priest/ volunteer:

Lord Jesus,
for our failure to honour the 'covenant between human beings and the environment' which mirrors
"the creative love of God, from whom we come and towards whom we are journeying".

Cantor sings: Lord, have mercy.

All sing: Lord, have mercy.

spoken by a priest/volunteer:

Christ Jesus,

we have come to see ourselves as the lords and masters of our Sister, Mother Earth, and this has led to the destruction of ecosystems and the extinction of species.

Cantor sings: Christ, have mercy.

All sing: Christ, have mercy.

spoken by a priest/volunteer:

Lord Jesus,

we acknowledge that we are one of the countries,

who have 'polluted most in the last two centuries.'

whilst others are 'already experiencing most of the burden of the climate crisis.'

Cantor sings: Lord, have mercy.

All sing: Lord, have mercy.

Prayer of the Faithful:

All sing:

Oh Lord, hear my prayer, O Lord hear my prayer.

When I call, answer me.

Oh Lord, hear my prayer, O Lord hear my prayer.

Come and listen to me.

Spoken by a volunteer, with very soft singing continuing underneath:

We give thanks for this gathering and everyone who has come to London for it. We pray that all may draw hope and dare to dream of a better future.

We pray for all those in any kind of leadership. May they hear and respond to the cry of the earth and the cry of the poor.

We pray for peace especially in those countries riven by climate change causing conflict. May the international community be alerted to act to provide real help

We pray for the police here giving thanks for their service in keeping people safe while preserving their right to make their voice heard.

We pray for the young fearful of their future. May they see hope dawn and real change begin to happen.

We pray for the sick especially those affected by air pollution, heat waves, drought and malnutrition and lack of clean water. May we work towards a just transition and fairer distribution of resources.

We pray for all environment campaigners who have lost their lives may they rest in peace and may their sacrifice not be in vain.

We give thanks for this beautiful planet and all the resourceful people that live on it. Give us a spirit of love for all the beauty you have created and of collaboration in caring for it.

All sing:

Oh Lord, hear my prayer, O Lord hear my prayer.

When I call, answer me.

Oh Lord, hear my prayer, O Lord hear my prayer.

Come and listen to me.

We ask the prayers of Mary, mother of the care for creation.

Hail Mary, etc..
