Advanced Course Offerings Overview

	AP	Dual Credit	OnRamps
Enrollment Type	High school enrollment	College course enrollment - college grade/credit is same as high school	Concurrent enrollment- college grade/ credit is separate from high school
Instruction Type	CFB teacher	College professor or CFB teacher/facilitator	UT Professor w CFB teacher/facilitator
Delivery	During the school day	School day, night, or online	During the school day
Teacher Requirements	AP Summer Institute	18 hours of master levels credit in the subject taught	UTOR Professional Learning Institute
Student Cost	• $20 Free or Reduced students • $50 Non-Free/Reduced students	No out-of-pocket student fee	• $0 Free/ Reduced students • Enrollment fee is subsidized by CFB for standard pay student
HS Credit	Based on grades in HS class	Based on grades in College class	Based on grades in HS class
HS Transcript	Course grade earned shows on the high school transcript	College grade earned is posted on the college and high school transcript (numeric on transcript)	Course grade from high school teacher shows on high school transcript
GPA	+9	Neutral - Counts on HS transcript at ECHS only	+9
College Credit	Earned based on the score on the Advanced Placement exam	Earned with a grade of C or better in the course	Earned with a grade of D or better in the college-submitted course with an option to accept the credit
Credit Awarded	College determines the hours of credit awarded based on the AP exam score (1-5)	Accepted at all public colleges in the state of Texas	Depending on the course accepted at all public colleges in the state of Texas (Geology)
Student Benefit	• Increased GPA points for rigorous course • Exposure to college-level curriculum in HS • Wide selection of course offerings • Test fee is subsidized by CFB • Possible college credit based on AP exam score • Guaranteed college credit on all AP Exam scores 3(+) at all public universities in Texas	• Exposure to college-level curriculum in HS • Wide selection of course offerings • No out-of-pocket student fee • Earn college credit for HS requirements • Earning a grade of C or better guarantees both high school and college credit • Guaranteed acceptance of credit at all public universities in Texas • Possible TSIA waiver depending on the course taken	• Increased GPA points for rigorous course • Exposure to college-level curriculum in HS • No student fee for F?R students • Enrollment fee is subsidized by CFB for standard pay student • HS grade determined by CFB teacher • Option to accept college credit • Guaranteed transfer of accepted credit at all public universities in Texas
Student Considerations	• College credit earned through end-of-year exam • Cost of exam • Offering may be based on campus attending	• May require dual credit ready score for enrollment • Course grade permanent on a college transcript • Failing grade could result in collegiate academic probation and impact on financial aid	• Cost of course for standard pay students • Offerings may be based on campus attending
Enrollment	High school enrollment through course selection	• High school enrollment through course selection • Completion of enrollment at Dallas College • May require Dual credit TSIA documentation	• High school enrollment through course selection • If a passing grade is not earned in 1st semester, it may require a qualifying TSIA2 or SAT score to regain eligibility to earn college credit for the year
CCMR Impact	• Students who earn a 3 + on the AP exam earn the CCMR indicator • AP exams or classes do not meet the TSI college-ready standard	• Students who take and pass 1 math class or 1 English class earn the CCMR indicator and can earn a TSIA waiver • Students who earn 9 hours of dual credit (3 classes) earn the CCMR indicator	• Students who are eligible to earn credit earn the CCMR indicator