

Mentally ill people are crazy, violent and dangerous.

Mental illness cannot be cured.

People with mental illness cannot contribute to society.

Anxiety/Depression: Isn't real. Is just faked for attention.
People can "just snap out of it".

Mental illness is a sign of weakness.

People with mental illness act strangely and are disruptive.

True or False?

1. Spain- People with mental health issues are not allowed in some restaurants, parks and other public places.
2. Lithuania- Some people with more serious and long term mental health problems are not allowed to own their own house.
3. Korea- In some pools people with mental health problems are not allowed to enter.
4. United States- People with a serious long term mental illness are not allowed to vote.
5. Japan- In some museums and other facilities like gyms people with mental illness are not allowed inside or not allowed in certain areas.
6. Asia- Three major airlines don't allow people with mental illness on a flight unless they are accompanied by a psychiatrist.