If we are on the same Discord server, feel free to DM me about your commission.

Pricing and Payment Method

- The minimum amount I'll write is a 500 word shortfic/pentadrabble (apparently that's how it's called). With that in mind, the minimum price is $7.50 and an extra $1.50/100 words will be added according to the desired length.
- Payment can happen through Paypal or Ko-Fi. If you're Brazilian, I'll accept Pix as well.
- For safety reasons, payment occurs 100% upfront. As stated in the next section, if I don't finish writing in the stipulated time, you'll receive all your money back.

Terms & Conditions

- By commissioning me, you understand the commission will be posted on the Archive of Our Own website. The only exception I make to this is content containing only OCs, no OC/Canon and no specific fandom — in this case, it's up to you if I have the permission to post the commission.
- Before payment, I will state how much time it will take for me to finish your commission. The deadline depends on specifics of the commission, so I can't give a standard to all text sizes.
- I will start working on your commission as soon as the money gets to my account.
- In case I don't finish the commission on time, you will receive all your money back regardless of how much I've already written. The unfinished draft will be abandoned or deleted.

Warning

- Aside from OC related stuff, I'll also write for many fandoms, like: Genshin Impact, Honkai Impact, Fear & Hunger (1 and 2), Cookie Run, Mortal Kombat, Lookism, Stardew Valley, Kimetsu no Yaiba, Chainsaw Man, Your Turn to Die, etc... You can ask me about a fandom and I'll gladly respond.

- I write couples of any gender combination, including non-binary characters and gender neutral language.
- I don't write: lolicon/shotacon (as in child characters — small adults are fine), graphic rape, incest, extreme kinks.
- I write: furry, mecha, less extreme kinks.
