

Annotated Bibliography - Note-taking Worksheet

First-Author's Last Name	Key Points/Themes	Connections with other source(s)--List First-Author and page numbers. • What gaps exist between the literature & why might that be? • What are common ideas that strengthen your argument? • What are differing ideas that strengthen your argument? • What contrary ideas that weaken your argument might you investigate in order to develop counter-arguments?
Example: Thompson et al.	Douglass worked out “stratagems to upset the system” in order to “undermine, cheat, and ensure a defeat of the system” (p. 42).	Article describes Douglass’ attempts to change society’s views on race and slavery. This source strengthens my argument as it also supports the Shields et al. reading which points out that a transformative leader is one that “challenges the uses of power and privilege that create or perpetuate inequity and injustice” (p. 564).

First-Author's Last Name	Key Points/Themes	Connections with other source(s)--List First-Author and page numbers.