

Chapter Policies

- Directors shall disclose conflicts of interest to the board.
 - Bylaws. Section 10
- The board shall not retaliate against whistleblowers for allegations made in good faith. Whistleblowers may report their concerns to an individual board member, or by emailing boulderdbsa@gmail.com or chapters@dbsalliance.org.
- The board may add, suspend and remove facilitators.
- The meeting facilitators may suspend or remove members from the meeting for repeated or egregious violations of the guidelines or other disruptive behavior.
- The board may suspend or remove members from the group for repeated or egregious violations of the guidelines or other disruptive behavior.
- A meeting facilitator or chapter representative may respond to a member in crisis by referring them to crisis resources and / or providing them with additional support.
- Official documents will be retained in the chapter's official cloud-storage account.