Day 1: Kochkor – Kyzart Pass – Kilemche

Begin your adventure with a hearty breakfast in Kochkor before heading west along the scenic Kochkor–Jumgal road. Travel by car to Kyzart Pass, where your experienced guide team will greet you with everything prepared for the journey. Start your trek across the expansive Kyzyl-Kyia jailoo, a vast and serene grassland that stretches endlessly. Continue your journey over the Chaar-Archa Pass (3061m) into the Chaar-Archa Valley, stopping for a delightful riverside lunch with breathtaking views of the sacred Baba-Ata Mountain (4400m). Afterward, cross the river and follow the trail through lush, rolling hills to Kilemche Jailoo, a picturesque landscape resembling a Kyrgyz felt carpet, or "shyrdak." End your day with dinner and an overnight stay in a traditional yurt hosted by shepherds.

Day 2: Kilemche – Song-Kol Lake

Enjoy breakfast in Kilemche before ascending to the Jalgyz Karagai Pass (3400m), which leads you over the Song-Kol Mountains into the lake's basin. The climb provides panoramic views of Kilemche Jailoo, with the pass offering an exhilarating, rocky landscape. Upon crossing the pass, Song-Kol Lake shimmers in the distance, gradually unveiling itself as you descend its slopes. Surrounded by majestic peaks, the lake becomes a central feature of the serene wilderness. Stop for a rejuvenating lunch at Zhaman-Echki before continuing your trek along the lake's eastern shoreline. Arrive at Batai-Aral yurt camp, where you'll be welcomed by a Kyrgyz shepherd family eager to share their nomadic culture and traditions. Enjoy a home-cooked meal and spend the night under the stars in a cozy yurt.

Day 3: Song-Kol – Kochkor

Begin your morning with a lakeside stroll, taking in the tranquility of Song-Kol. Immerse yourself in the daily lives of the local shepherds, observing or even participating in traditional activities such as milking mares, making kymyz (fermented mare's milk), and preparing airan (a tangy, dense milk product). After lunch, transfer back to Kochkor via the scenic Kalmak-Ashuu Pass (3446m). Arrive in Kochkor with unforgettable memories of your journey.
