

JACK LLEWELYN DAVIES - Male-Presenting, to play 8-12 years old – British accent

PART ONE (please read all the boy parts)

JACK

We want to play "Cowboys and Indians"!

GEORGE

We should form our own tribe!

BARRIE

Yes! One of honor! And silliness! Okay!

BARRIE and the boys do a silly crowing call.

SYLVIA

Alright, I think we've had plenty of fun for one day.

BOYS

Awww.

SYLVIA

There's always tomorrow.

PETER

So tomorrow then? For more adventures?

BARRIE

We'll be here...

JACK

Goodbye, Mr. Barrie! Ahoy!

MICHAEL

Goodbye, Porthos! Giddie up!

PART TWO

BARRIE

Awh! You got me! So – how was school today?

JACK

I wrote a poem in class and apart from the spelling, the teacher said it was first rate.

George only likes school because he has a torch for a girl in his class.

GEORGE

I do not!

JACK

She's got scruffy hair and grins all the time like a Cheshire cat!

GEORGE

She has a beautiful smile! (he stops – realizing he's given himself away)
