

"Lent Daily Thoughts" Project 2025

Feedback form issued by the Mission Committee of Lothian and Borders Presbytery

You have received our Lent Daily Thoughts over the last few weeks, and we hope you have found them useful.

Now that Easter has arrived, we would like you to take a moment to give us your views on the project recently completed.

Please assess each question below, using a scale of 1 (worst/least) to 10 (best/most).

Question 1: Thinking about this new initiative as a way of nurturing faith among church members over the season of Lent, how would you rate any benefits which you might have gained?

Please write your answer (a number from 1 to 10) here: _____

Question 2: With personal growth in mind, how would you rate the project's capacity to deepen your own biblical and theological understanding?

Please write your answer (a number from 1 to 10) here: _____

Question 3: Looking towards spiritual "moments" or "sparks" which may have come your way, how would you rate the project's ability to "feed your imagination" each day?

Please write your answer (a number from 1 to 10) here: _____

Question 4: Assessing your engagement with the project over the days and weeks of Lent, how would you rate your own track record in regular reading of the Daily Thoughts?

Please write your answer (a number from 1 to 10) here: _____

Question 5: A large team of volunteers agreed to write one or more reflections, so how would you rate the project's quality of writing in general?

Write your answer (a number from 1 to 10) here: _____

Question 6: Our Presbytery is still quite new, so how would you rate the impact which the project has had upon your sense of "belonging" within Lothian and Borders Presbytery?

Please write your answer (a number from 1 to 10) here: _____

Question 7: Taking into consideration all factors relevant to you as a reader of the Daily Thoughts, how would you rate the project as a whole?

Please write your answer (a number from 1 to 10) here: _____

Question 8: Finally, looking ahead, how would you rate the likelihood of your engagement with a similar Advent Daily Thoughts Project in 2026?

Please write your answer (a number from 1 to 10) here: _____

Please either type below – or write overleaf – any comments you might have or ideas on improving Daily Thoughts Projects.

Now please return your completed form to Robin Hill (rhill@churchofscotland.org.uk) by Monday 28th April.

You can print your submission if you prefer, posting it to Robin at: The Manse, 8A Elcho Road, Longniddry, EH32 0LB.

Many thanks for your feedback – it is deeply appreciated and will greatly assist in future project planning!
