

Hey G,

Sorry to barge into your Inbox. I'm sure you're already stressed from all these baddies in Mexico messaging you this Christmas, but don't worry that's not why I'm here.

Alongside baddies, I'm sure you'd love to effortlessly pull just as many clients with their wallets in hand, excited to be learning from you.

I have a few strategies to help you increase your client base within the first month of 2024.

It should only take 10 minutes for me to ask a few questions to see if you'd be a fit.

Does a virtual coffee chat work? I'll happily send over a $10 Starbucks gift card.

All the best,

Muhammed
