Prelude

Morning Prayer
Loving God, you remind us that Christ is present in the lives of those who are hungry, lonely, forgotten, and in need. Forgive us when we overlook others' struggles or become too comfortable to respond to their needs. Open our hearts to look beyond our differences and recognize the sacred worth of every person we meet. Give us generous spirits and willing hands, so that we may express our faith through acts of compassion and justice. Receive our worship today, and send us into the world to share Christ's love by caring for one another. Amen.

Welcome
