

Powhatan Study Guide

- The Powhatans lived in the Eastern Woodlands

- They lived in longhouses made with bark, saplings, and grass

- Built stockades around their gardens which look like large fences

- They were farmers. They ate the "Three Sisters" –corn, beans, squash

- Hunted: deer, bear, and rabbit

- Powhatans wore moccasins

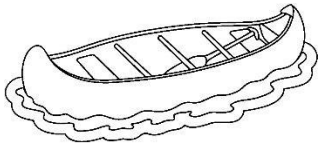

- They wore snowshoes in the winter

- Children learned by watching and helping

- Traveled by walking and using canoes

- Pocahontas was a Powhatan