

[HEADLINE AND INTRO]:

This might sound crazy, but...

GO WITH ME HERE

Harness your weird. Mold the messy. Carpe joy.

[HEADLINE 1]:

Greetings, talented earthlings! throws confetti

Welcome to GO WITH ME HERE: my virtual coaching studio and your one-way ticket to good vibes and creative freedom.

[BODY 1]:

Finding an acting coach that you authentically connect with can be harder than nailing your Chewbacca impression on the first try.

We might make an unstoppable team if:

- you're a high school student stressed about college auditions
- you're in college — or just graduated — and you need a helpful nudge
- you're new to the audition grind and you're craving some stability and control
- you're an established artist feeling stuck, stale, or uninspired in your process
- you've got a scary self-tape to submit and you wanna nail your best take
- you're ready to bring your full, spirited self into your work
- you have an endless tolerance for bad jokes, awkward pauses, and impromptu dance parties

[SUBHEAD 2]:

Boldly go where no actor has gone before.

[BODY 2]:

GO WITH ME HERE is a collaborative, virtual space where you can feel safe to play, grow, dig, discover, refine, giggle, work, strive, and endeavor (... and probably see me in my onesie, let's be honest.)

Real Talk — most remote coaching services out there are product-based and focused on making you “marketable”. I myself have been an eager student in many of these programs... but something always felt “off”. I began to ask myself: “Why do I leave these expensive sessions feeling ‘blah’ and questioning my own artistic instincts?”

Don't get me wrong: there is incredible value in being marketable and delivering a refined performance ... but how can you be “polished” if you don't know intrinsically who you are and why that makes you so flippin' special?

[SUBHEAD 3]:

I'm gonna get you prepared as hell — but my studio focuses on much more than your next gig.

[BODY 3]:

I want to nurture you — the skilled performer and the curious, weird, incredible human being that you are. In my studio's judgement-free zone, I encourage you to make choices, take risks, and kick up some dirt. Together, we'll roll up our sleeves, go big, get messy — and then we'll make your work sparkle with finesse. chef's kiss

GO WITH ME HERE prioritizes consequence-free play and inspiration, and once we've left no stone unturned, we'll mold that joyful chaos into authentic, intentional, clear magic.

Coaching Services

[SUBHEAD 1]:

Creating without the fear of failure sounds dreamy, right?

Here's how I can make that dream your reality pulls back velvet curtain

[BODY 1]:

Partnering with me will leave you feeling:

- fully seen, completely heard, and 100% embraced for who you are
- totally prepared and confident in your polished, malleable work
- artistically fulfilled and full of creative, joyful spirit
- in charge of your own creative journey with supportive, thoughtful guidance from me
- connected to a fellow artist who's been where you are and knows what it's like
- like the leader of your own hype-parade, with me marching beside you as your #1 fan

[SUBHEAD 2]:

Break It Down Now, Ya'll!

[BODY 2]:

• The Deep-Dive Discoveries

Schedule a private session for 30 or 60 minutes of uninterrupted coaching on material of your choice. Got a monologue or scene that you're dying to sink your teeth into? Is your rep book gathering some dust? Let's put the pedal to the medal on your artistic joy.

Comin' in Hot: Save up to 20% on your sessions when you book a bundle! Choose a 3-pack or 6-pack of coachings at checkout — valid for 3 months — to save some cash while you get your creative juices flowing.

[CTA BUTTON]: Sign Up for a 30 or 60 minute Coaching (links to Acuity page)

• The Self-Tape Support Systems

You got the email with the sides, you've memorized them, and somehow talked your roommate into leaving the apartment so you can film in peace... But now what? I got you, baby! Choose from the following class packs, depending on how deep you wanna dive.

 Bundle #1: The Self-Tape Side Kick

Get in, get out, get the job! Send me the best take of your self-tape, and I'll give you the 4-1-1 on a 15 Minute Consultation Call. After some notes and feedback, you'll be ready to roll (...literally).

 Bundle #2: The Self-Tape Hero

Pack an extra punch: In this 45 minute sesh, we'll do some table work before I coach your sides. You'll put the goods on tape, send me a draft, and I'll give you even more customized feedback to take your audition to the next level.

 Bundle #3: The Self-Tape Legend

I choose you, Pikachu! For 90 minutes, you'll get the full package: table work, coaching, blocking, wardrobe consult, a voice recording of me as your reader, and feedback on your video draft. CRUSHED IT! chest bump

• The College Prep Packages

Navigating the stressful world of college auditions can sometimes create more questions than answers. (Trust me, I've been there.) As overwhelming as the scheduling, applications, essays, and interviews can be, the one thing that's completely under your control is your audition prep. Let's get your song, monologue, and audition technique firing on all cylinders so you can show those adjudicators how incredible you really are.

The following packages are available a la carte or paired with any Add-On Option(s).

* Bundle #1: The College Prep Side-Kick

In six 60-minute sessions, I'll help you pick your rep, coach your song, and master your monologue. We'll run through your pieces in a mock audition, allowing you to apply notes and get those nervous jitters out!

* Bundle #2: The College Prep Hero

In twelve 60-minute sessions, you'll get everything from the Side-Kick... and more! I'll throw in a pre-screen tech consult, a prescreen edit, and an audition debrief so you get all the goodies of the Add-On Options without the headache of signing up a la carte.

* The College Prep Add-On Options

Leave no stone unturned: Add any of these bonus features to either College Prep Package to give it all ya got.

— College Add-On #1: Prescreen Tech Consult

Save the drama for your monologue! In two 20-minute sessions, we'll solidify all the technical elements of your prescreen tape so you can hit "send" without breaking a sweat.

— College Add-On #2: Prescreen Edit

"Ok...I filmed my material...now what?" Patience, young grasshopper. I'll edit your videos into a clean, polished presentation for any college program of your choice.

— College Add-On #3: Artistic Statement Consult

These days, most programs require a written statement in addition to your audition. In this 60-minute power hour, we'll shape an essay that conveys your artistic vision and values, and illuminates why you'd be an asset to any training program.

— College Add-On #4: Audition Debrief

Every audition is an opportunity to grow and learn, especially when you get feedback in the room. After each of your college auditions, we'll hop on a call to turn "WHOA, what just happened?" into "How can I learn from this?".

[CTA BUTTON]: College, Here I Come (links to Acuity page)

• The World-Builder Workshops

These 2-3 hour, group classes are offered every few weeks. Each session is centered on a new and relevant theme that will open your mind and expand your actor toolkit. Be on the look-out for the latest workshop offering in your email inbox.

 The Boo-Yeah Bonus: For a limited time, I'm offering FREE Follow-Ups in addition to my regular coaching sessions.

What the heck is the The Boo-Yeah Bonus? (I'm so glad you asked!)

Let's say we prep your self-tape or your college audition. We get you ready for anything, you nail your pieces,... and now what? You get radio silence from your casting director or adjudicator, and you're left wondering how it really went and what you can improve in the future.

That's where I come in!

For a limited time, I'm offering FREE 15 Minute Audition Follow-Ups where we process, digest, debrief, and plan. We'll discuss how you think you did — which is always the best metric of success — and the ways in which we can turn feedback into actionable progress toward boldness, freedom, and specificity in your future work.

Tell Me What You Want, What You Really Really Want

[BODY 3]:

No matter which session or bundle you choose, I'm here to help you with any piece of text, monologue, scene, song, or audition side that floats your boat. So long as your piece makes you excited to be an actor, I'm in!

My services include:

- Introducing you to new rep
- Leading you through acting exercises
- Coaching acting-through-song
- Coaching monologues

- Guiding you through text analysis and efficient table work
- Building a college audition in a comprehensive process of suggesting and coaching rep
- Prepping your professional audition
- Shaping your scene, side, or song
- Offering breath and vocal placement tools
- Introducing you to acting work based in movement and other techniques

Ragin' Referrals:

Once we've gotten you feeling fierce in your song, you'll need an accompanist to take you to the next level. If you find yourself needing piano tracks for any of our work, just say the word and I'll connect you to my roster of talented ivory-tinklers.

The Mission — should you choose to accept it

[SUBHEAD 1]:

My studio is the Comic Con of coaching platforms

[BODY 1]:

Special, talented, unique, wild, bold, nerdy, weird humans come together to explore, connect, and play without shame, rejection, or fear of failure.

- Chaos breeds discovery. I empower you to rock out, get messy, take up space, and have a freakin' blast. When we apologize and make ourselves small, there's no room to grow. My individualized coaching sessions are custom-tailored to suit your personal needs, goals, strengths, and learning style so that — even amidst the play — you feel nurtured, secure, and prepared.

- Your quirk is your superpower. Don't let anyone tell you that being weird and being marketable are mutually exclusive. Your weirdness makes you special, and being special makes you desirable and hireable. Let's banish rigid "types" from our vocab so you can step into your full, awesome self. Your gut impulses, your roots, and your authentic point of view are precisely what make your creative interpretation joyous, unique, and essential.

- Measure success in "Aha!" moments. I know that we've nailed our time together when we've made tons of discoveries that leave you looking at your piece with clarity, fresh eyes, and renewed vigor.

[SUBHEAD 2]:

Let's Make a Deal

[BODY 2]:

Our partnership really sparkles when we both show up for each other. What does it look like when I hold up my end of the bargain? I arrive at our sessions fully prepared, present, and focused to inspire, challenge, and serve you based on your individual needs and goals.

You can meet me halfway by doing the same: be off-book, know your notes, and come fully prepared to play, work, and grow with me. I like to think of our work as an energetic contract. If we both vibe at the same frequency, the possibilities for discovery are endless. victory jumps into bad 1980's freeze frame

A Little About Me

[SUBHEAD 1]:

I want to be the person that I didn't have in school — for you.

[BODY 1]:

I'm a proud North Carolinian twirling around the Big Apple. After earning my BFA in Musical Theatre and a Minor in Dance with honors from Pace University, I worked on the Aladdin national tour, at regional theaters around the country, on cruise line shows, and more. I've continued honing my skills over the years and I've studied with the best of the best — and now I'm ready to spread the love to you.

Bonus points for asking me about:

- My list of phenomenal impressions — including Louis Armstrong, a turkey gobble, and R2D2
- Why I'm such a massive nerd (Hint — it involves a lot of anime... I mean, a LOT.)
- My stand-up comedy skills (It helps that I think I'm hilarious.)

[SUBHEAD 2]:

What My Background Means For You

[BODY 2]:

- I've been where you are, and I'm with you all the way. I remember what it's like to be in your shoes, since I was standing there not too long ago. Not only can I relate to you, but I'm also ready to give back now that I'm on the other side of the educational theatre process.
- I know what it's like to feel stifled by teachers. Say it with me: You don't have to make yourself smaller in order to succeed. Like me, you've probably had a lot of coaches throw a lot of ideas and push a lot of agendas onto your beautiful, blank slate. How do you know what works for you? I'll help you to cut through the noise so you can trust your gut and explore.
- I'm rooting for you. Think of me as part coach, part cheerleader (I may or may not own pom- poms). I'm interested in who you are and where you're going beyond our single hour together. Continue to keep me updated, and I'll be the first to do a happy dance in your honor.
- I'm a community builder. Bringing talented, unicorn humans together and giving back to our community are incredibly important to me. I created and funded a scholarship at my hometown dance studio for young performers to spread their wings, and I'm just as committed to creating one-of-a-kind learning opportunities for you.

What Makes Me Tick

[SUBHEAD 1]:

“There’s nothing wrong with letting people who love you, help you. Not that I love you, I just met you.”

— Iroh, Avatar: The Last Airbender

[BODY 1]:

I want you to learn with me, not from me. As we meet each other virtually from the comfort of our own homes, we’re forming a partnership on a level playing field (and also in our sweatpants). I’m not the Jedi master and you’re not just my student, but rather we’re two equals, bouncing ideas off of each other to discover what is truthful for you.

[SUBHEAD 2]:

My Core Values as an Artist

[BODY 2]:

- Be a well-rounded, thoughtful person. Staying involved with politics, reading, relationships, fitness, and mental wellness make you a better actor and more importantly — a better human.
- Have empathy. In order to fully step into your character, you can’t be judgmental. Similarly, diving into the world of a play helps you to understand different people and their varying points of view.
- Be of service. The arts can change minds and hearts. We must use our creativity to give back as we’re in service to our community and to the play itself.

[SUBHEAD 3]:

My Core Values as a Teacher

[BODY 3]:

- Lead with love
- Communicate clearly
- Embody generosity
- Seize joy
- Learn something everyday
