

Dr. Edgar Allen Wright visions during Recursion Prime

“Bear in mind that they might not be synced to this Temporal Node. But here is another vision that may or may not be relevant: Digging in Cimmerian Basement... Mnemosyne lighting a green fire... Black Sea... Jahanite... Twenty One... Lost...”

Cimmerian can point to the ancient cimmerian people that lived in the Middle East in 1000 BC, near the Black Sea

The Cimmerian Basement can refer to the ancient small continent of Cimmeria that existed in early Jurassic. Now, it has been identified as part of the Mediterranean and Middle East geological basin, all the way through the Southeast Asia. Somehow it suits in the Alexander's journey

Mnemosyne

Greek goddess of memory. In some cults, drinking from the Mnemosyne river prevented the transmigration of the soul: <https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Mnemosyne>

Plus, she looks a lot like The Acolyte.

...lighting a green fire made me remember one phrase from the Robert Howard book, one of those underlined by Dille and Raz:

"Free the philosopher's stone, gates of a temple
Oracles across the earth roar again
Man of the Shadows, the lesser gods of the earth.
Enshrine Chiron
Deep
Dream

Within the hour
Flashing fain lodes reap the Sign the green face
Night will be red the mighty deep; to sleep.
Their own ship berserk the force of a wolf at bay god of battle
Lonely watcher they rushed out into the street
Rose a poet the savage sage
The spectre
Red field horror thunder death a shade surges
Ancient phantoms
Beneath a thunder-tree. The night-sounds called to me.
Tall masts grey fiends wave evermore.
A tall ship where splendors are.
Two ancient foes have met at last. The sightless blind hands lock.
Roared the mighty phantom"

“Serpent to siwah is a indication to Alexander the great again I believe”

“A story told that one night King Philip had found a huge snake in the bed next to his sleeping wife. Olympias was from Epirus and may have practiced a mystery cult that involved snake-handling.^[2] The snake was said to be Zeus Ammon in disguise. After his visit to the Siwa Oasis in February 331, Alexander often referred to Zeus-Ammon as his true father. Upon his returned to Memphis in April, he met envoys from Greece who reported that the Erythraean Sibyl had confirmed that Alexander was the son of Zeus.”

“Saw through the eyes of the shooter, but who was I? Hank went down?
Who knew? Why? Who to trust? Niantic Project Onboarding... All of us?
Cursed to Recurse...”

Could the shooter be someone related to Niantic Project? Phillips, Calvin himself maybe?
The Niantic Magnus being the great plan, and Hank the very first onboard Simulacrum. Or was it an RPE experiment?
