

IN THE SNOW

I opened my eyes and had no idea where I was. I opened more my eyes and I was in the mountain. There are a lot of snow, I was very cold. I was thinking that I must find civilization.

So I walk for one hour but I saw a house in the horizon. I was excited, so I ran at the house. I opened the door and I saw the Yeti!. The Yeti followed me and tried to kill me. The Yeti hunt me and when the Yeti was killing me I opened my eyes. Was a dream! I opened more my eyes. I was dead.
