

NC aims to advance to the playoffs early with foreign pitcher Tanner Turley.

NC beat SSG 7-3 in Game 2 of the semi-playoff (best of five) at SSG Landers Field in Incheon on the 23rd. NC, which won the first and second games, will advance to the playoffs with one more win.

NC will play Game 3 of the semi-playoff at NC Park in Changwon on the 25th.

Initially, NC planned to send Eric Peddy as the starting pitcher for Game 3. However, Peddy complained of pain in his right forearm, making it difficult to take the mound.

As a result, he changed the starter for Game 3 to Tanner. Tanner, who joined the league in the middle of the season as an alternate foreign pitcher, started 11 games and posted a 5-2 record with a 2.92 ERA. He pitched in one game against SSG and pitched well with a 3.38 ERA.

However, it was sluggish in the postseason. In the wild card game against Doosan, he allowed seven hits (one homer) and five runs in four innings.

SSG, which is in crisis, predicted Oh Won-seok as the starting pitcher for Game 3. Oh Won-seok pitched in 28 games and recorded 8 wins, 10 losses and a 5.23 ERA. Against NC, he pitched in four games and recorded two wins, two losses and a 4.98 ERA.

Oh Won-seok has been on the rise in the last four games with two wins and one loss and an ERA of 3.38.
