

Attorney Karen Kenner Scott is a seasoned legal professional concentrating in real estate transactions and litigation, as well as business and corporate law. Known for her strategic approach and commitment to client success, she brings a wealth of experience from both public service and private practice.

Before founding The Scott Law Firm and previously practicing at the real estate and business law firm Williams Teusink, Attorney Scott served as an Assistant Solicitor General in both Fulton and DeKalb Counties. Rising to Deputy Chief Assistant Solicitor General in DeKalb, she led her unit to numerous successful prosecutions in land use, zoning, and code enforcement matters. This experience now gives her clients a decisive advantage in complex property and regulatory cases.

Her work has earned multiple honors, including the Rising Star Award from the New Rock Legal Society, the Michael Hancock Award from the DeKalb Lawyers Association, the Georgia Association of Black Women Attorneys Scholarship, and the National Black Law Students Association Rodney Pulliam Scholarship.

A dedicated advocate for women in the legal profession, Attorney Scott is active in the Georgia Association of Black Women Attorneys and the Georgia Association of Women Lawyers. She has been selected for several prestigious leadership programs, including the Emerging Leaders of DeKalb (2018), GABWA's Judicial Public Official Academy (2023), GAWL Leadership Academy (2024), and membership in (2025) Leadership Rockdale Class.

Attorney Scott earned her Bachelor of Arts in English from the University of Georgia in 2009 and her Juris Doctor from Atlanta's John Marshall Law School in 2012.

Beyond the courtroom, she serves her community through roles on her children's school council, board membership with More Than Conquerors, Inc., and active involvement in Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated. She is happily married to Roderick Scott and takes pride in being the mother of two exceptional young daughters.
