STUDENTS:

Hi sophomores and juniors! You should have all gotten back your PreACT and/or ACT score reports in Advisory on Friday 5/9, and I hope you are proud of your achievement, or at least understand your growth areas. Sophomores, you have until February 2026, to prepare for the ACT Plus Writing test that you will be taking in school, so visit the act.org website for practice test, and tips. Juniors, if you are not satisfied with your scores, you can sign up with ACT to take it again. However you feel about your results on this challenging test, understand that it is what you do next with that information, that really matters. D.

SENIORS & PARENTS...IF you missed 'Sr. Parent Info Knight - Part 2' last week go to the CHS website (www.castlehs.k12.hi.us) and click on the 'graduation info tab' to check out the slideshow from that event. Lots of important dates and info on prom, graduation 'stuff', project graduation 2025, Sr. banner ordering, and lots of info from our college & career counselor. This message was also sent out via SchoolMessenger to all senior parents. If you didn't receive that email please contact the registrar to update your email address listed at CHS for important and timely information.

Hey Seniors! Our Cap & Gown and Grad Announcements Pick-Up Day will be on Thursday, February 27, after school in the Auditorium Lobby between 1:20 PM - 2:15 PM. Please present a valid, current picture ID in order to pick up. Only you or your parent/guardian can pick up your cap & gown. If you have any questions, please see Ms. Omiya in Room 13 during non-class hours. Thank you! C.Omiya

SENIORS:

TODAY is your deadline to get your Senior Portfolios done and of good quality. Your deadline is 2:05 p.m. TODAY. Your Advisory teacher is your first reader/evaluator. A group of faculty is meeting on Saturday to do a second read of your folders to give you your final evaluation. Any portfolios that are incomplete by 2:05 p.m. today and/or found to be of poor quality on Saturday will be marked as NOT MET and these students will need to take the $120 credit recovery class offered next semester. Your portfolio is a graduation requirement. K. Souza

College Horizons is a program dedicated to increasing Native American, Alaska Native, and Native Hawaiian students enrolling, succeeding and graduating from college, professional and graduate schools. Since 1998, they have served over 4,000 Native students on their path to higher education through their college access and success programs. For 2025 College Horizons programs will be hosted by: Hawai'i Preparatory Academy (Waimea, HI) June 7-13, 2025; Yale University (New Haven, CT) June 26 - July 2, 2025; and Northwestern University (Evanston, IL) June 26 - July 2, 2025. The 2025 College Horizons Application will be available on November 1, 2024: <https://collegehorizons.org/apply/>. Please see attached "CH 2025 Program Flyer" for more information or see Ms. Souza in room 20.

What's the difference is between AP and Early College classes? Which one is better? How do I even find out what classes are being offered? The answer to all these questions will be revealed at our AP/Early College/Running Start Night on Thursday, November 7 @ 5:30 p.m. in the library. All King 8th grade and

Castle parents, guardians and students are invited. Please RSVP to Ms. Souza by emailing her or stopping by room 20. K. Souza

STUDENTS/FACULTY/STAFF:

Tomorrow is an E2 day. Please report to your Advisory teacher. Grades 9-11, your goal is to get your second piece of evidence selected and your reflection written and linked to your ePortfolio. Seniors - this is your last official Advisory Day to get at least 3 primary and 3 secondary items done, approved by your Advisory teacher, and linked as a Castle Comment Only document to your slides. Friday, October 4, which is the last day of Qtr 1, is a special schedule to accommodate our Career Awareness Fair. You will have limited Advisory time to complete any unfinished work on that day. K. Souza

The month of September marks the celebration of Hawaiian History month. The establishment of organizations like Ka Lāhui Hawai'i in 1987 and ongoing advocacy for Native Hawaiian self-determination have kept the issue of Hawaiian sovereignty and rights at the forefront of local and international discussions. C. Everett

The month of September marks the celebration of Hawaiian History month. In 1895, supporters of Lili'uokalani attempted a counter-revolution to restore her to the throne. The effort failed, and Lili'uokalani was arrested and forced to officially abdicate. Queen Lili'uokalani is remembered for her deep sense of aloha for her people, which she expressed through her music, writing, and actions throughout her life. Queen Lili'uokalani passed away on November 11, 1917. She is buried at the Royal Mausoleum in Mauna 'Ala, and her legacy is celebrated annually on Lili'uokalani Day. C. Everett
