EVENT/PROJECT: Linguistic Society of America Conference

DATE OF EVENT/PROJECT: 1/5/2023 - 1/8/2023

AMOUNT REQUESTED: $619.97

DISCUSSION: Introductions by Funding Board Officers. Allison was present to represent her Grant to the Funding Board. Allison wishes to attend the Linguistic Society's Annual Conference, which is four days in January of this next year. This is an annual meeting held every year. Chair Bray asked if the LSA is planning to go altogether as a club. The student answered that students do have to be a member to go to this specific conference, so in that sense, they are planning on traveling together. Chair Bray then spoke that the Funding Board would be unable to fund the membership fee, but that they can fund a maximum of $400. The student answered that this was fine and wants the majority for airfare. The Board then moved to vote, and Chair Bray followed up with instructions on what to do next.

AMOUNT REQUESTED: $400.00

DISCUSSION: Introductions by Funding Board Officers. Cichaya was present to represent her Grant to the Funding Board. Cichaya wishes to attend the Linguistic Society's Annual Conference, which is four days in January of this next year. This is an annual meeting held every year, and it focuses on workshops and professional development surrounding linguistics. The student then spoke that she had already purchased her ticket for her flight and it was only $183. Chair Bray then explained to the student that this would be funded through a Direct Grant instead of an Individual Grant because of the number of students attending from the same Club. Chair Bray also spoke that the Funding Board would be unable to fund the membership fee, as it was for more than just the Conference. The student answered that this was fine. The Board then moved to vote, and Chair Bray followed up with instructions on what to do next.

ASBSU FUNDING BOARD MINUTES

DISCUSSION: Introductions by Funding Board Officers. Bishal was present to represent his Club's Grant to the Board. Bishal first explained what the NSA does and its objectives. This club wishes to assist Nepali students as well as organize different programs to help BSU students be introduced to Nepali society. The Club wishes to host an event labeled "Nepali Night". At this event they will share Nepali culture and provide food free of cost, hopefully through Funding Board funds. The student then shared photos of the event that was held last year, he explained that there were around 300 students who attended the previous event. The funds given by the Funding Board today will be used for food, drink, utensils and AV equipment. Abby asked where the Club plans on having this event, the student answered that last year it was held in the Jordan Ballroom of the SUB. The Club wishes to better advertise their event this year to have more students attend as well. The Board then moved to vote, and Chair Bray followed up with instructions on what to do next.
