

JOIN THE CLASS OF 1994
IN COLLABORATION WITH THE PRINCETON UNIVERSITY
PRISON TEACHING INITIATIVE
FOR A VIRTUAL NINETY-FORUM

EDUCATION, RACE, AND JUSTICE: AN INTRODUCTION TO THE PRISON TEACHING INITIATIVE

THURSDAY, JANUARY 28 @ 1:00 PM EST

Panelists:

Masha Miura '21, Co-Chair of SPEAR (Students for Prison Education and Reform)

Dameon Stackhouse, MSW,LSW, Co-Founder of Standing for Change

Dan-el Padilla Peralta '06, Associate Professor of Classics

Erin Flowers, PhD Candidate, Astrophysical Sciences

Over the past eighteen months, it's been my honor to serve @PrincetonUniversityClassof1994 on the advisory board of the Princeton Prison Teaching Initiative. Why do I support access to higher ed for incarcerated students? Join me and classmates @EdenM.Badertscher and @OtisBrianJennings at this event to learn more. This extraordinary group of panelists will share their own experiences with prison education and highlight the urgent need for prison reform and access to education. They'll tell us how they are advocating for change and offer ways to get involved. Find out more and register here: <https://tinyurl.com/yc8y9m9r>

(Tag classmates!)

—

Save the Date! Join me and the @PrincetonUniversityClassof1994 in collaboration with our class service project, the Prison Teaching Initiative (PTI). Hear from Princeton faculty, students, and a PTI graduate about mass incarceration and its relationship to systemic educational inequalities. Learn about Princeton's role in providing the highest quality post-secondary education for incarcerated students in NJ, find out how Princeton students, faculty, and alumni are advocating for change, and discover ways that you can get involved. Find out more and register here: <https://tinyurl.com/yc8y9m9r>

(Tag classmates!)

What is Princeton doing to fight for access to higher ed for incarcerated students? Proud to support #PrincetonU Prison Teaching Initiative as Class of '94 service project. Join me January 28 to learn more. Registration Link: <https://tinyurl.com/yc8y9m9r>

(Tag classmates!)

--

What is the relationship between mass incarceration and systemic educational inequalities? Join the #PrincetonU Class of '94 to learn more and find out how you can get involved. Registration Link: <https://tinyurl.com/yc8y9m9r> (Tag classmates!)

—

*** Page down for a FB graphic with more information than the one above ***