

Interesting how everyone loves alcohol. Right.

So with the love of alcohol, everyone goes to bars including yours to get drinks.

So instead of having locals come through to stop by and visit.

I found your website while just browsing around looking for a place to relax at.

You could have a great income from outsiders, to meet interesting people.

So why not promote your place to meet those interesting people

Really awesome, modern interior design, the art is beautiful.

Sincerely,
Moyah Lee
