

Indigenous Salmon Research Symposium

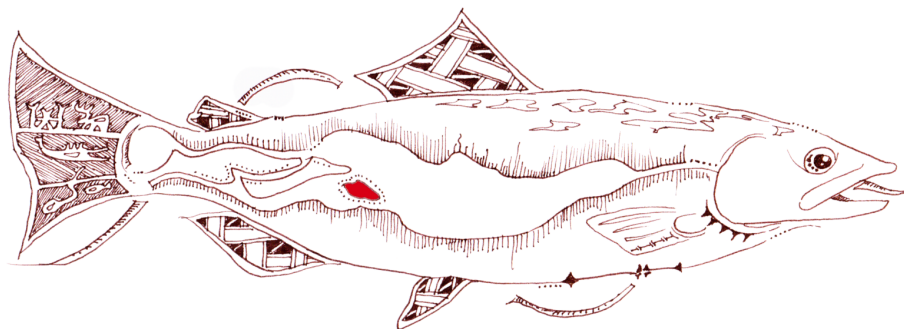

Oct 3rd	Location: Hotel Utsjoki. Times are in Finnish local time CET+2
08.30	Opening by Sámi hosts and invited guests Pirita Näkkäläjärvi, Sámi Parliament of Finland Moderator: Gunn-Britt Retter, Saami Council
09.00	Ethics in Sámi and Indigenous Salmon Research and Management practices Keynote Speaker: Professor Rauna Kuokkanen, University of Lapland. "Sámi research ethics guidelines and Indigenous salmon research" Roundtable discussion Pirita Näkkäläjärvi, President, Sami Parliament of Finland Dr. Chad Walker, Climate Change and Planning, Dalhousie University Dr. Camilla Brattland (UiT The Arctic University of Norway) and Dr. Juha Hiedanpää (LUKE), RecoSal project	Translation provided
10.30	Coffee break
10.45	Indigenous knowledge in watershed restoration Keynote Speakers: Professor Harald Gaski, Sámi University of Applied Sciences, and Aage Solbakk, Dean of Instituttet. "Sámi terminology and knowledge of the changing Deatnu watershed" Speakers: Dr. Robert Grabowski, Catchment scientist, Cranfield University, Sharing our knowledge project. "Climate change impacts on river systems". Dr. Paivi Abernathy, University of Waterloo and University of Victoria, Vancouver Island Health Authority. "Connecting the well-being of the salmon to the health of the people" Dr. Gro Ween, University of Oslo. "Streams of Sami salmon knowledge, and conditions for ongoing salmon collaborations"	Translation provided
12.15	Lunch break

13.00	Utsjoki river spawning salmon observation event Introduced by dr. Jaakko Erkinaro, LUKE, and Sámi host.
13.45	Two-Eyed Seeing and Justice in Salmon Management Introduction by the Ambassador of Canada to Finland, Jeanette Stovel. Keynote Speaker: Dr. Andrea Reid, Centre for Indigenous Fisheries, University of British Columbia. "Indigenous leadership and justice in globally shifting salmon systems". Speaker: Dr. philos Steinar Pedersen: "The salmon management of Deatnu – Teno - Tana: Is Sámi traditional knowledge taken into account according to the existing legal basis?" Roundtable discussion with Andrea Reid, Steinar Pedersen, Sandra Márjá West, Anne Nuorgam and Rauna Kuokkanen.	Translation provided
15.30	Coffee, free time and mingling. Explore Utsjoki and the local Rástegáisa pub, the Ellos Deatnu lávvu or just relax.	Utsjoki
	Lávvu dialogue hosted by Sámi Parliament of Norway	Ellos Deatnu lávvu
15.30	Side event for invited local participants organized by the RecoSal and MARGISTAR projects. Dinner included (location tba).	Hotel Utsjoki
19.30	Dinner for registered participants	Hotel Utsjoki
21.00	Concert by Niillas Holmberg: Jalvvi Niillas Holmberg Indigenous salmon peoples contributions	Hotel Utsjoki
Oct 4th	Indigenous Salmon Research Symposium	Hotel Utsjoki Language: English
08.30	Sharing circle: Salmon Peoples of the Arctic. Chair: Nadine Kochuten, Aleut International Association

	Keynote Speaker: Tatiana Degai (Assistant professor, University of Victoria). “Əničeʔn – č’amzanlaʔn – kiw (Fish – People – River): appreciating Fish – People relationships in Kamchatka through generations and shifting governments” Speakers: Youth representative Jazmyn Vent, Arctic Athabaskan Council. "State of Alaska Systems of Oppression: Exploring the Relationship between State of Alaska Fisheries Management and Alaska Native Communities through the lens of the Yukon-Kuskokwim Salmon Collapse" (Master thesis presentation) Kati Eriksen, Arvil, Sápmi Brandy Mayes, Kwanlin Dun First Nation, Yukon Darren Sylvester, Membertou First Nation, Mi'kmaq
10.15-	Coffee break
10.30	Salmon in Indigenous Food Systems Moderator: Dr. Eli-Anita Øivand Schøning, Máhtut project Keynote Speaker: Dr. Haliehana Stepetin, Unangaᖃ. “Qungaayuᖃ ama Adgayuᖃ: Pink Salmon as Indigenous Food Sovereignty” Speakers: Deenaalee Chase-Hodgdon, Arctic Athabaskan Council. “The Smokehouse Collective” Kasey Stirling (Nlaka’pamux/Mi’kmaq), PhD fellow, Centre for Indigenous Fisheries, University of British Columbia. Inge Arne Eriksen, director of Bivdu, Sámi coastal fishers’ association Questions and answers.
12.00	Lunch break
13.00-14.30	Roundtable: Building Indigenous Leadership in Salmon Governance Keynote Speaker: Senior Advisor and Dr. Shelley Denny, Unama’ki Institute of Natural Resources. “Role of Cross-Cultural Education and Relationship-Building for Atlantic Salmon: First Order Governance Opportunities in Nova Scotia, Canada”

	Speakers: Prof. Ida Hydle, Indigenous Voices Research Group, BIRGEJUPMI project, UiT - The Arctic University of Norway. “Practising community representation in research” Dr. Heather Smith, watershed governance specialist, Cranfield University, Sharing our knowledge project
14.30	Summing up and future directions Dr. Camilla Brattland, UiT the Arctic University of Norway
15:00	Closing Departure Food for remaining participants
	Transport For those participating in the daytrip and research symposium: October 1: Bus from Karasjok to hotel Utsjoki at 8 pm. Check-in at hotels. October 2: Bus to Deanušaldi - Tana bru at 8 am (Finnish local time), (9 am Norwegian local time) return around 8pm. October 4: Organized transport by car from Hotel Utsjoki to Deanušaldi - Tana bru at 4 pm (bus leaving from Tana bru at 17.35 Norwegian time) October 5: Bus from Hotel Utsjoki to Kirkenes at 5 am.

Image credit: Ellos Deatnu. Artist: Johan Sandberg McGuinne