

Copyright Basics Multiple Choice Test

Mr. Morton

CTE/Arts & Communications – 40 pts

Student Name: _____ Pd. _____

Directions: Multiple choice.

1. What is copyrighted material?

- a.) All media created after 1923
- b.) All published media
- c.) Media published from 1977 or after without copyright notice
- d.) Published media that is not a part of the public domain

2. What is Fair use?

- a.) When you ask an author or publisher for permission
- b.) When you make sure to acknowledge the owner of the published work
- c.) An act that allows for certain exceptions to copyright policy
- d.) Using only material found in the creative commons

3. What is the safest way to use other's work and avoid violating copyright law?

- a.) Gain permission from the publisher
- b.) Gain permission from the owner
- c.) Gain permission from the author if they retain the rights
- d.) A, B and C
- e.) A, B but not C

4.) If an owner of copyrighted material does not permit you to use the work, what can you do?

- a.) Unless they are willing to negotiate, then you cannot use the material
- b.) File an injunction with the FTC
- c.) File an infringement lawsuit
- d.) File a copyright patent

5.) What material is favored by the Fair use act?

- a.) Unpublished artwork
- b.) Published artwork
- c.) Non-fiction
- d.) Coveted recipes

6.) If someone authors a novel or paints a picture, is the work always owned by the creators?

- a.) True
- b.) False
- c.) True, unless they sell the rights to it

7.) What works are in the public domain?

- a.) anything on the internet
- b.) anything on the internet w/o a copyright license
- c.) anything on the internet that is published to the web
- d.) creative commons work with no licensing restriction

8.) What is copyright infringement?

- a.) a violation of law where one uses your creation without your permission
- b.) a violation of law where you take other's work from the internet
- c.) a violation of law where work used w/o permission is not within the scope of "fair use"
- d.) a violation of law where you invade one's privacy

9.) If you get the written permission from an author, and assuming they own their work, you are guaranteed to be acting within the law?

- a.) True
- b.) False

10.) In what example would work-for-hire rules never apply?

- a.) A compilation of different works
- b.) Part of a movie or other audio visual work
- c.) Student teacher writings
- d.) Answer material for a test

11.) A person who is unemployed creates a brand new sculpture, can another party claim rights to that work without permission from the sculptor?

- a.) Yes
- b.) No