

Oyster has partnered with Swiss Legal as one of our trusted legal professionals. The information below is provided for your convenience and use, should you choose to reach out to Swiss Legal for assistance.

In what countries can Swiss Legal assist me?

Switzerland

Who should I contact for assistance?

Kathrin Nemecek, nemecek@swisslegal.ch

Be sure to include that you are an Oyster customer!

Do I need to provide Swiss Legal with any information?

Yes. To ensure Swiss Legal can work with you without violating any ethical duties and responsibilities, they need the following information when you initially contact them.

- Full Company Legal Name
- Address of Company Headquarters
- Website

Additional information may be requested if you decide to engage Swiss Legal.

What will Swiss Legal charge me if I engage them?

If you and Swiss Legal decide to work together, Swiss Legal will charge reasonable hourly rates based on, among other things, the type and complexity of the work to be done.

Will I have to sign anything if I engage Swiss Legal?

Yes, you will need to sign an engagement agreement or letter with Swiss Legal. You are free to negotiate your own agreement with Swiss Legal.

Please know, any information you share with any Oyster Legal Partner will remain between you and the Partner. Oyster will never know (unless you tell us or give us permission to know) what you discuss with this Partner. Also remember, Oyster is not a law firm, any communications between you and Oyster may not be protected as privileged communications under an attorney-client privilege.

 Oyster's Worldwide Legal Network is not a referral service.

Oyster's Worldwide Legal Network is not a lawyer referral service. The directory of lawyers published on the website is provided to the public freely and is for informational purposes only. Oyster does not endorse or recommend any Legal Partner.