

“Living the Story”

Live more, do more, be happier more
That's what we're put on this Earth for
But what is life without a little sadness?
The kind where it almost drives you to madness, takes up your happiness
Wandering around this road and getting lost
How much is being happy going to cost?
But the simple answer is to keep your head high
And never lose your sense of pride
For better days are ahead
And one day in the future, happiness will spread
To the world, already big and in need of some hearts
When that day comes, it'll be painted in a sky full of arts
And life, with its arms open wide
Will walk alongside
Each and every one of us, no need to discuss
Just be present and here and near, no need to be the upper tier
Some of us are only believers
But it's better than being deceivers
The world is a challenging place, and at times it is easier to quit
Admit it, lose it, don't do it
But take my hand and walk down this road with me
Don't flee, be carefree
For I'll never lose my sense of hope
Even if I'm walking along a breaking tightrope
The world can be a beautiful place
Just got to make a mark in the human race
So someday when I'm gone
This story lives on.
