Remember, from the moment you arrive to the moment you leave, you represent all those who have come before you, all of those present with you, and all those who hope to follow you. When you are in uniform, you are not looked upon as an individual, but as a member of our Music Program, past, present, and future. What type of impression are we leaving?

These guidelines have been developed to help create a positive presentation for the Music Program. The Music Program wears its attire with pride, presenting a professional appearance whenever we appear in public together. Only attire and accessories outlined above will be accepted; no substitutions.
