Privacy Policy

This policy applies to all information collected or submitted on manager cloud app's website and our apps for iPhone, iPad, Android and any other devices and platforms (the "Application").

User data processing

1. Data Collection

The application uses the device's camera or gallery photos to analyze images for [specify purpose, e.g., object recognition, photo enhancement, etc.]. All processing is performed in real time, and we do not permanently store user photos, share them with third parties, or use them for any other purposes beyond the immediate analysis.

2. Data Usage

Images are processed either locally on the user's device or on secure servers to provide the requested functionality. No personal data (including photos) is retained after the session ends, unless explicitly saved by the user.

3. Disclosure and Transfer of Data

The app does not sell, transfer, or disclose user photos or related data to third parties. All processing is performed anonymously, without linking images to the user’s identity.

4. Data Storage

We do not store:

- User-uploaded or captured photos;
- Analysis results, unless the user chooses to save them on their own device;

- Any personal data extracted from the images.

If the app requests access to the device’s gallery to select a photo, it is used solely for one-time processing and is not stored on our servers.

5. Security

We implement technical and organizational measures to protect user data during processing. Since images are not retained after the session, the risk of unauthorized access or data breaches is minimized.

User Provided Information

You may provide other information, including: (a) transaction-related information, such as when you make purchases, respond to any offers, or download or use applications from us; (b) information you provide us when you contact us for help.

We may also use the information you provided us to contact you from time to time to provide you with important information, required notices and marketing promotions.

Automatically Collected Information

In addition, the Application may collect certain information automatically, including, but not limited to, the type of mobile device you use, your mobile devices unique device ID, the IP address of your mobile device, your mobile operating system, the type of Internet browsers you use, and information about the way you use the Application.

We may work with analytics companies to help us understand how the Application is being used, such as the frequency and duration of usage. We work with advertisers and third party advertising networks, who need to know how you interact with advertising provided in the Application. Advertisers and advertising networks use some of the information collected by the Application, including, but not limited to, the unique identification ID of your mobile device and your mobile telephone number. To protect the anonymity of this information, we use an encryption technology to help ensure that these third parties can't identify you personally. These third parties may also obtain anonymous information about other applications you've downloaded to your mobile device, the mobile websites you visit, or your non-precise location information (e.g., your zip code) in order to help analyze and serve anonymous targeted advertising on the Application and elsewhere. We may also share encrypted versions of information you have provided in order to enable our partners to append other available information about you for analysis or advertising related use.

If you'd like to opt-out from third party use of this type of information to help serve targeted advertising, please visit the section entitled “What are my opt-out rights?" below.

Does the Application collect precise real time location information of the device?

This Application does not collect precise information about the location of your mobile device. We may receive or infer information about your location from a variety of sources. For example, the analytics services we use may use the IP address or other data to identify the city where you are using the Application; or we may use your device's app store or locale settings to determine the country where you are likely using the Application. We use this information to link you to the app store for the country you are in, or to improve the relevance of the ads you see, or to collect anonymous statistics about where the Application is being used.

Do third parties see and/or have access to information obtained by the Application? Only aggregated, anonymized data is periodically transmitted to external services to help us improve the Application and our service. We will share your information with third parties only in the ways that are described in this privacy statement.

We may disclose User Provided and Automatically Collected Information:

As required by law, such as to comply with a subpoena, or similar legal process; When we believe in good faith that disclosure is necessary to protect our rights, protect your safety or the safety of others, investigate fraud, or respond to a government request; With our trusted services providers who work on our behalf, do not have an independent use of the information we disclose to them, and have agreed to adhere to the rules set forth in this privacy statement.

If manager cloud app is involved in a merger, acquisition, or sale of all or a portion of its assets, you will be notified via email and/or a prominent notice on our Web site of any change in ownership or uses of this information, as well as any choices you may have regarding this information.

To advertisers and third party advertising networks and analytics companies as described in the section above
