

Hey Kyle,

I recently came across your Insta page and I really enjoyed your Reel on the importance of your communication and vibe when talking to a girl

You made a solid point about how you should be aware of the way you portray yourself to the world and start to tweak the 'nice guy' behaviors you have

I checked the caption of the video and saw that your call to action was 'DM me the word women for more help', which I can understand...

It's tough to come up with captions that really hook your viewers when they could just go watch another video

But I've seen a lot of big dating brands (Wing Girl Method, Dan Bacon, Bobby Rio, etc) pull it off

I modeled their work and drafted 5 captions custom to your brand (attached at the bottom) that make viewers so interested that they'll pay any amount of money to learn what you teach

Are you interested in other techniques to take your business to the next level?
