Part 2: Photo & Video Release

TRIO Upward Bound, College of Education and Human Development, University of Minnesota, will often take pictures of students during program time for print publications including our program brochures, newsletters, and other marketing and communication mediums. Additionally, we post pictures on social media including Facebook, Instagram, Twitter online in an effort to create and sustain community for the participants. The photographs and/or audiovisual recordings are not for commercial use. The college's publications, Web site, and other material are seen by current and prospective students, alumni, University staff, and others. We will also record online classes on Zoom and other students can watch to make up class.

Please initial below to verify that you grant permission for TRIO Upward Bound to use photos and videos taken during program time of named participant for any legitimate, noncommercial, purposes they may deem proper. Further, I relinquish and give to them all right, title, and interest I may have in the finished pictures, negatives, audiovisual recordings, slides, and reproductions.
