

Spoko Polish A2.3 Turning into Polish course curriculum

Listening

- Listening to a conversation between native speakers and extracting information.
- Listening to radio & TV broadcasts

Reading

- Reading a newspaper article.
- Reading and analysing advertisements.
- Reading and analysing health & safety instructions.
- Reading educational instagram posts.

Communication

- Giving instructions in a conversation.
- Dealing with miscommunication.
- Being assertive in a conversation.
- Socialising expressions.
- Expressing your state & emotions.

Writing

- Writing simple letters.
- Writing a short text about a friend.
- Writing a description of an event.
- Making a short powerpoint presentation on a chosen topic.
- Handwritten dictation.
- Writing a FB event description.
- Translating phrases and short texts between Polish and English.

Grammar

- Continuation of aspects in past tense: verbs of motion, negations, recognising aspect of complex verbs.
- Describing location with locative case.
- Matching prepositions with cases for location and direction.
- Dative personal pronouns for expressing your state and emotions.
- Adverbs: Superlative, comparative and negative adverbs.
- Introduction to imperative mood.
- Comprehension of active and passive endings: -ący & -ony.
- Using ordinal numbers to tell dates.

