I declare that the article above is:

1. An original manuscript, my ideas and analysis, not a translation/adaptation, is not under consideration for being published in any media and has never been published in any media. I am willing to be responsible for any complaint and legal appeal taken by any parties because of the publication of this article.
2. My article does not contain any statement that is unlawful or defamatory and does not contain any material that violates the privacy rights or proprietary rights of any person or other entity.
3. If, during the review process, I withdraw/cancel the article, then I am willing to notify the editor and follow the article cancellation rules set in the Register.
   In case of violation of this statement, I am willing to get any penalties from Register and be included in the Register's list of banned authors.

The undersigned author, on behalf of all authors:

1. Agree to publish the article that has been submitted to Register.
2. Agree to transfer the copyright of this article to Register.
3. Agree to compensate for and release Register from any costs that may arise due to the breach in the article.
4. Ensure that the article submitted is original. If the article contains a piece of text, images or data created by another person/party, make sure that it obtains the rights or permission from the copyright holder (author, publisher, or organization) or that the reference has been mentioned in accordance with the citation format.

This statement I made to be used as appropriate.
