A Continuation on "What Actually Happened"

Written by: Solar

(TW: Mentions of Slurs & Suicide, Disturbing Topics)

This document is a continuation on my other document on Geno, I suggest you read it before reading this one: ☰ What Actually Happened, some information is now wrong as I didn't know what I know now.

This is a formal callout on @COMBATINITIATED, also known as @genoinitiated2k, @shacklessimply and @BeveloDeveloVA.

It's not meant to be taken as an "I told you so", and isn't in defence of anyone, its only purpose is to inform people on what Geno/Shackles/Bevdev has been lying about for over a year now, and push them to stop this degenerate behavior.

Again for context, everything mentioned in this document happened after I released the original "What Actually Happened" document.

If you have any questions, concerns or anything I may have gotten wrong, you can let me know on Discord or Twitter, my Discord is @/solarroom and my Twitter is @/solar_room.

What Happened after "What Actually Happened"

Chapter 1: What Happened after "What Actually Happened"

(This part will go over the important parts, as it's been over 5 months)

I released the document at 12:00 PM, December 23th.

I made 3 edits, adding and editing parts to fix anything I got wrong.

After the document was released, Geno made a post in his Discord and Parody, here's what he said.

Gooday lads

The parody will deactivate in about 2 or so hours, and I and Shackles will be on an indefinite leave till about Jan 28th

I am not fleeing or deactivating because of the recent controversy surrounding myself, I am taking a leave for my own safety.

TW//

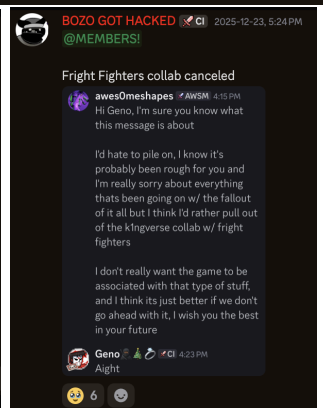

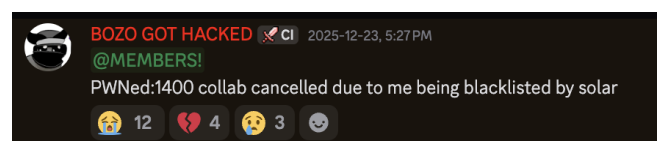

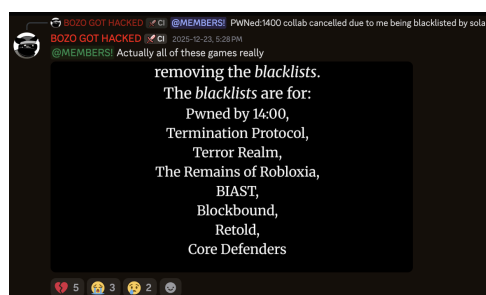

A few interesting folks have sent photos of dead babies (specifically of African American ethnicity), accompanied with slurs, and threats to my own unborn child in both discord and twitter DMs.

Collabs as of now are on hold, the shattered collab will still happen, just later when I come back.

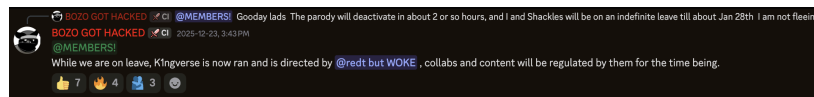

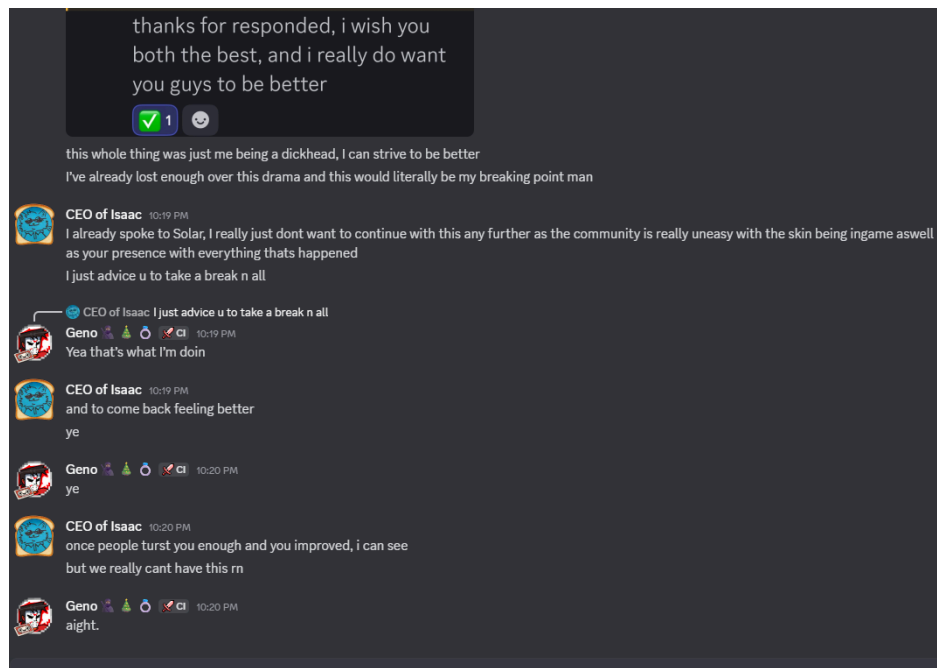

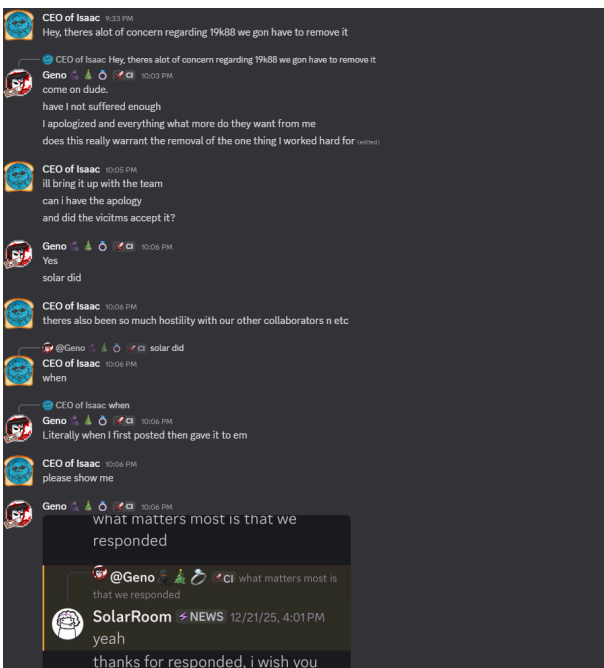

Thanks for understanding!

Geno said that he and Shackles will be taking an indefinite leave till about January 28th, claiming that "I am not fleeing or deactivating because of the recent controversy surrounding myself, I am taking a leave for my own safety", but then the account was then put under protected posts, making some posts, which most I don't have.

Some collaborators also pulled out after seeing the original document, here's what Geno said regarding them.

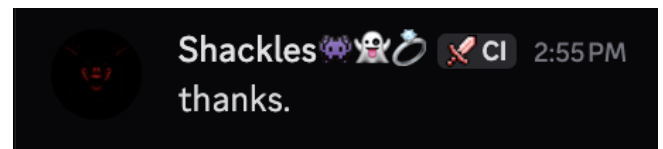

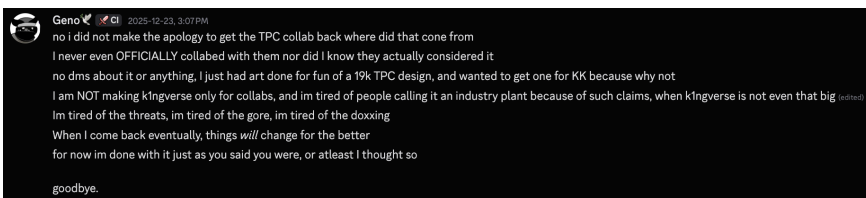

19k88 007n7 was also never pulled from the game unlike what Geno says, it was removed.

Geno also changed the director for Kingverse to RedT, saying all collabs will be regulated by them for the time being.

Both Geno and Shackles DMed me when I released the document.

I then talked with Geno in DMs, here's what happened:
(TW: Venting)

The screenshot shows a Twitter thread. The top tweet is from SolarWind (@SolarWind) dated 2020-12-24, 14:19PM. It contains a quote from a user named Goro (@Goro) who says: "Why do you guys care so damn much about my wife and life being real?? I don't get it?? It is because I'm a forsaken fan cut that would highly be valid. As I put before the apology ANTHE... 2 - great to hear, can't wait to see it". SolarWind's reply says: "3 - you could dm mulch on discord, his username is 'mistermulch' 4 - rmlm". The second tweet is from Goro (@Goro) dated 2020-12-24, 15:16 PM, replying to SolarWind. It says: "No lie he has me blocked on discord too". The third tweet is from Goro (@Goro) dated 2020-12-26, 0:46PM, replying to SolarWind. It says: "Wasn't a lie and I literally stated I blocked him over the comment with groovy on my god bruh". The fourth tweet is from Printzo (@Printzo) dated 2020-12-26, 0:46PM, replying to Goro. It says: "I'd like to real quick mention that his block reason was a total lie, I was blocked at the same time as Groovy and he decided to use my selfship with 1180B as a defense for some reason...?? I don't even care that I'm blocked but don't go on and lie about it 🤔🤔". Below the tweets is a quote box containing a tweet from SolarWind (@SolarWind) dated 2020-12-26, 0:46PM, replying to Printzo. It says: "I see what that 'false reality' that you blocked me I didn't but we were not given any information on why I was blocked and I have never deleted anything. I was blocked after I posted a tweet about the 1180B and I was blocked after I posted a tweet about the 1180B and I was blocked after I posted a tweet about the 1180B". Below the quote box is a text box containing the text: "Now for Printzo, solar stated I had blocked you over your comment 'could care' under the now deleted linguist post, I apologize for that... and you may keep me blocked. Lolito". Below the text box is a text box containing the text: "He cannot be this hurt over me using the fictional character shenanigans as a defense. If I find it funny who cares bro...". Below the text box is a text box containing the text: "SolarWind (@SolarWind) · 4 years ago I see blocked proof of you being harassed, abused, and getting cut out of a group".

On January 18th, a burner was made called “@K1ngverseburner”, releasing a document trying to prove that Geno faked his attempt, there was also another page talking about how Shackles isn’t a real person, but tries to prove it by saying that they type the same, which isn’t anything on its own, and making the entire document lose its credibility.

Here’s the document if you want to read it: Combatinitated2k

It was later said by Shackles that the document was made by “proshippers” that had been harassing them for a while, she also said that the document had malware, which was the reason why Geno’s Discord account got hacked according to her.

When I saw the original document, I made the “Jax tweet”, which many of you probably know about.

I made an apology thread shortly after deleting the post, then took a break to work on improving myself, which helped a lot.

Apology Thread if you haven’t seen it: https://x.com/Solar_Room/status/2013092254018085372

I talked with Shackles after releasing the apology and we settled it at the time.

these people who are harassing you and geno are really fucked up for doing so, and the doc seems to be made only out of hatred for you guys but i also want to say that some info from the doc is a bit concerning, with there being a lot of proof of geno may have faked his suicide, and bevdev may be geno's alt, but with knowing who was writing this, i can't fully believe their side, but i think it'll be good if you can explain some things in the doc to me i really do hope you guys are okay, i only wrote my doc because of the things that you guys did to me and some others, and i only wanted you guys to take an actual break because this stuff cannot be healthy for you guy's mental and physical health, but these people are doing it only out of pure hatred, and nothing else

i think the best thing to do is to release your guys document, and take a long break from twitter, it'll be the best thing to do for your guys health if you have any concerns about this, i'm always free, take care (edited)

Shackles 2026-01-18, 9:36 PM
Yea sure what'd you do??

Shackles suggested that I lift their blacklists, which I did.

During the DM, Geno's Discord account was hacked, which I will talk about more later.

On January 22th, Shackles went to Isaac's DMs, trying to get Paperpal and Paperboy Elliot removed from Forsaken, which Isaac DMed me about, and I told what fully happened.

I went to Shackles to ask them why they did it after this, here's what they said.

 Shackles   I can't keep going on like this, just constantly suppressing my anger because it'll be deemed as harassment or another excuse or some other bs

Shackles   2026-01-22, 9:38 PM

I don't wanna hear any excuses, and I wanna know what everyone really says about my fucking husband behind his back.

shows his entirely black AU and tries to get it somewhere? NOPE!

because by god is the hatred for his creations so fucking unnecessary and anytime he states he doesn't like the negativity 19k88 received on his release, no one fucking cares and just sweeps it away

Gee maybe he's comparing shit to his own because he is always thrown under the bus and shat on???

19k88's skin legacy is the saddest shit I have ever seen

Zero videos

Not even in rig packs

Isn't even listed on the official wiki for removed skins

Not featured in anything and doesn't get to because our rep has been stained by bs

Hell the fucking makeship plush will probably fail at this rate, because literally no one knew who he was and what he represented.

The pure point of KIngverse isn't to collab because of popularity, KIngverse shows and will always be an example of POC Representation in all forms within Roblox games, asym or not.

KIngverse shows that even if you can't draw or have no talent, you're ideas will go somewhere, an example and inspiration for other niche creators, to keep trying, and never give up. (edited) hell, considering you're jackass reaction to that doc trying to claim he faked his own suicide, you'd probably be happy if he fucking died.

I'm incredibly undeniably disappointed

Genuinely you disgust me, and I'm tired of not saying it.

And after all this, you'll probably blacklist everything again because me being rightfully angry about your reaction to Geno's attempt is offends you soo much.

I'm sorry I just need to calm down

I've been having too many panic attacks and it's not doing good on me

solarroom 2026-01-23, 12:33 PM

I want to be clear and respectful about this. I understand if you don't want to forgive me, but I wish that had been communicated that earlier. You told me you understood it was a mistake, and it was, and I acknowledge that what I did was inappropriate and avoidable. I take responsibility for my actions. It occurred during a period of high stress and not reading it thoroughly, but I want to do better, I want to reflect & learn from this, and I will try my best to do so and stay to my word.

What has been difficult for me is being informed afterward that you are upset, particularly after I returned your collaborations, I wish that you told me earlier, as it feeling like I was being used.

Saying that I would be happy if Geno died, that I disgust you, or that I have secret hatred toward you and Geno are false and deeply hurtful, even if both of you guys have done bad things towards me and others, I don't hate you guys, I only want you guys to improve.

You're antagonizing me like I'm racist, which I'm not, like I made you forgive me, but I didn't, it feels like the reasons why I even did the blacklists are being forgotten, and you're painting me as this terrible person who hates you and Geno.

You guys harassed me, you guys didn't pay your development team, you guys have been really disrespectful to tons of people, he scammed 20k+ Robux, and both of you guys has lied about so many things, after-all that, I could've hated you, and many people were disappointed in you, but I don't hate you guys, I never did, I want you guys to improve, to do better, I'm trying my best to do so, but I don't see any progress in yourselves.

solarroom so what's up with this 🧐 🗨

solarroom 2026-01-23, 9:42 PM

I also want to add that I understand that you're mad, but this was just petty, and completely not what you stand for, you're trying to get the only POC skin for Elliot removed just because I made them.

solarroom I also want to add that I understand that you're mad, but this was just petty, and completely not what you stand for, you're trying to get the only POC skin for Elliot removed just because I made them.

Shackles 🧐 🗨 2026-01-23, 9:44 PM

I admit that was indeed petty of me, I was not thinking and was fueled with anger.

I guess I thought you were the reason 19k was removed, although that's most likely, and just went off

Isaac told Geno that it was a "bad look" and 19k was removed

I thought it was unfair, You with a platform 10x bigger than ours, doesn't get any sort of repercussion, despite what you said then deleted was an even worse look.

19k didn't even get to last a month, weeks even and most likely won't return since Isaac repeatedly ghosts me

solarroom 2026-01-23, 10:11 PM

I did have repercussions, what I did was a mistake, but one mistake doesn't define a person, I'm trying my best to not do something like that ever again, and reflect and learn from it.

What you guys did was also a mistake, but you guys made multiple mistakes, which some you guys are yet to apologize for or even acknowledge, you guys need to clear up them, try to improve, and be better people.

I really do still think and believe that you guys can do it, so I won't put the blacklists under effect again, but please actually try to better yourselves. (edited) solarroom I did have repercussions, what I did was a mistake, but one mistake doesn't define a person, I'm trying my best to not do something like that ever again, and reflect and learn from it. What you guys did ...

alright.

COMBATINITIATED

Chapter 2: COMBATINITIATED

This chapter goes over the COMBATINITIATED account, and what it was before the “CombatInitiation” rebrand.

If you haven’t seen my original document, I figured out that Geno used to impersonate a person named “Lysteral” on Twitter, Discord and Tiktok, and the Discord account was linked to a Roblox username (JChris1929) if you put it into the Bloxlink verify system in the “BlushCrunch Studio” Discord server, it shows that the impersonator is linked to Geno’s Roblox account into their Discord account.

keep this in mind for the next chapter

Videos:

📺 Screen Recording 2025-10-05 at 12.20.54 AM.mov

Lystreal said that “the impersonator would join the server and constantly repost my animations on the tiktok account”.

Here’s also another document compiling it all which was made by Lysteral, it also shows off another impersonator account ran by Geno: expose doc yeah

The account they were impersonating were also not 18, and is a minor (14-16).

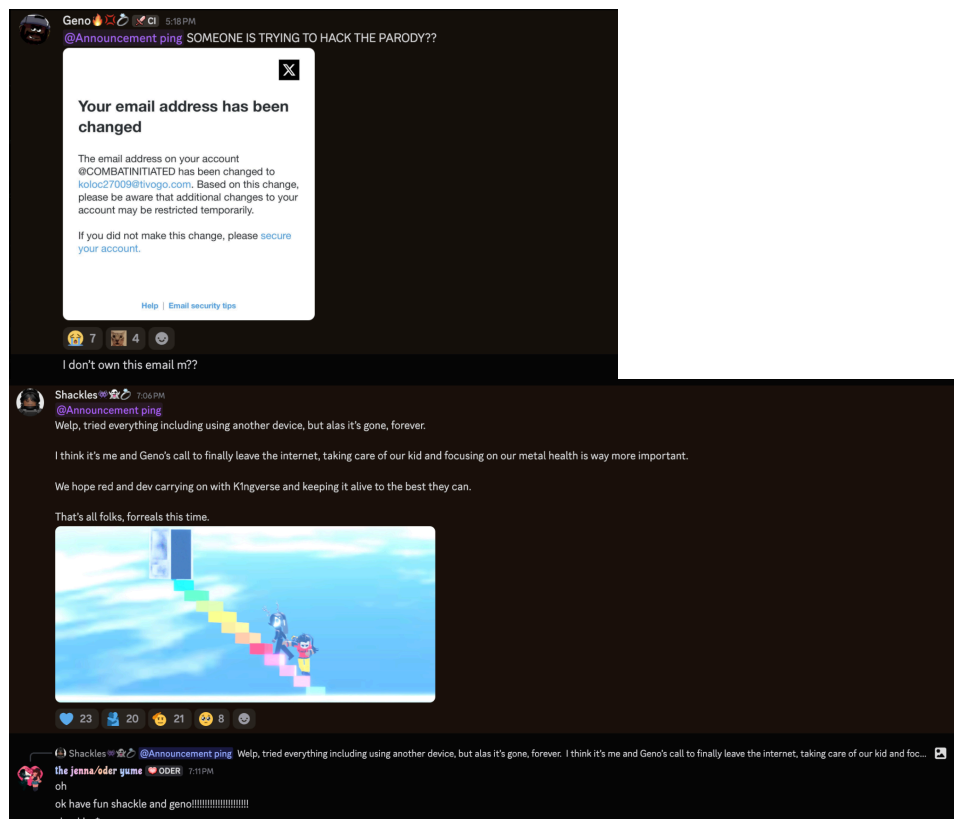

As you can see, this account was made in January 2025, the same date as the COMBATINITIATED account was created, and with everything inside the “expose doc yeah”, it proves that he switched into COMBATINITIATED to get out of trouble.

Both Geno and Shackles' main accounts were made in July of 2025 in the United States, and Shackles' BIO originally said that they're a Roblox software engineer. (I sadly cannot find any screenshots of it, but it's still in their Roblox about me, but edited to say "soon to be".

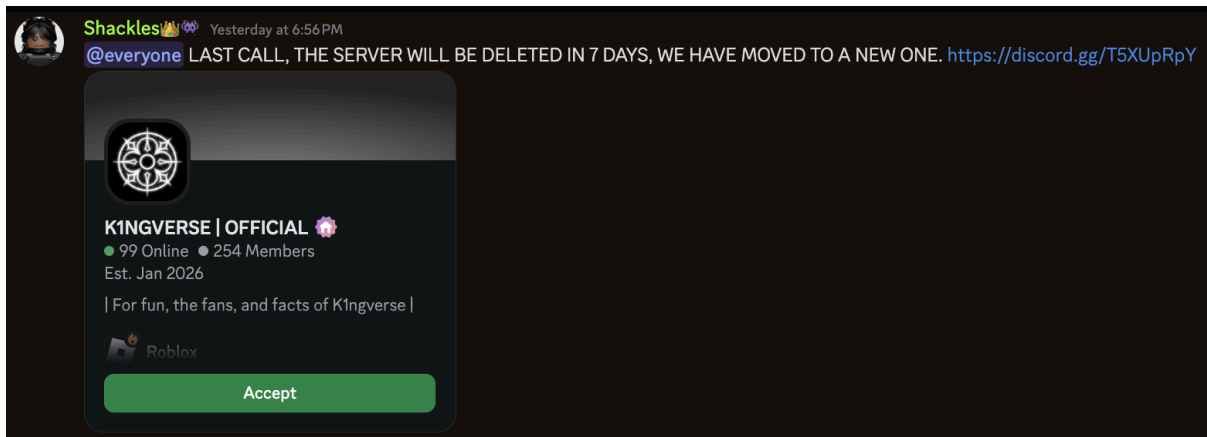

The account was hacked on April 21st. From what I know, it's actually real. After they failed at trying to get it back, they announced that the account is gone forever, and said they'll be "leaving the internet" to take care of their child.

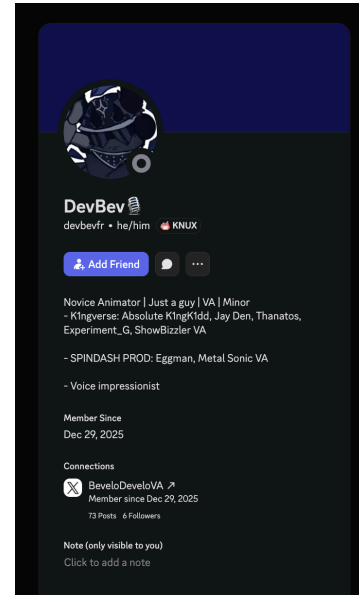

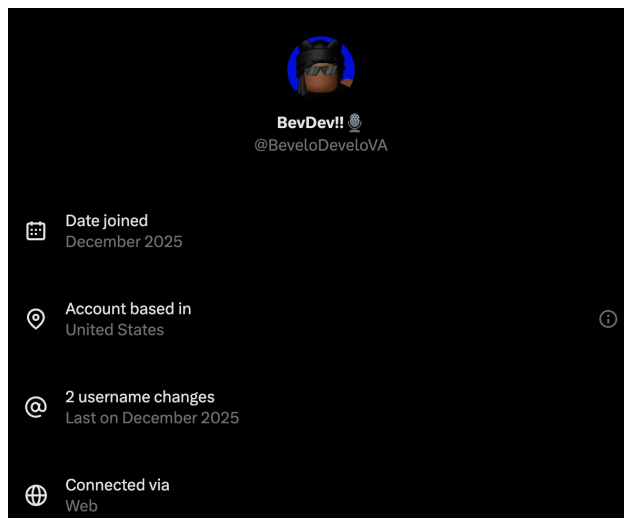

Bevdev is Geno's Alt Account

Chapter 3: Bevdev is Geno's Alt Account

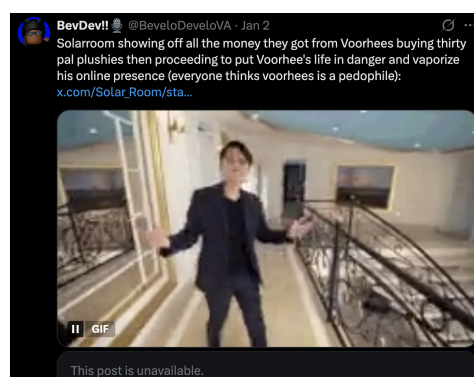

I would firstly want to say that in the new Kingverse server, the original general chat was deleted, so some messages from there may have been deleted.
Also, the original Kingverse Discord was deleted after Geno announced they were leaving the internet, so most of the messages from there are now deleted, besides the ones I have images of.

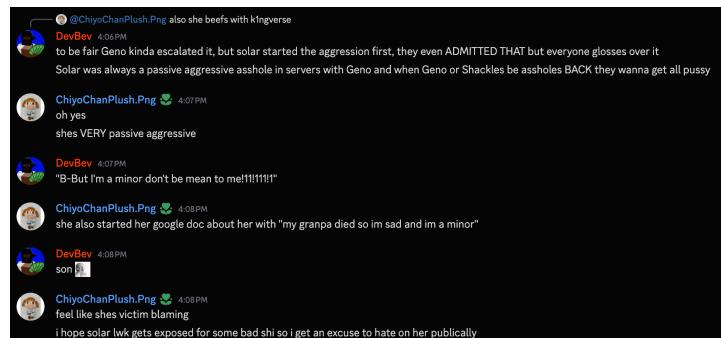

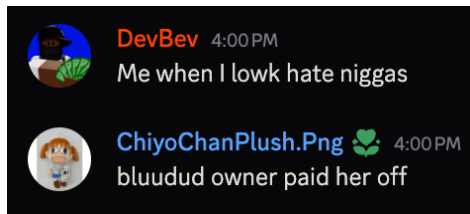

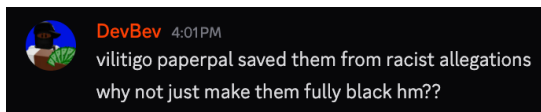

Bevdev joined Discord & Twitter on December 29th, 3 days after I blocked Geno for venting to me, Bevdev also joined the Kingverse server the same day as the account was made.

His first post was talking about me, saying that Geno bought 30 Paperpal Plushies and “put their life in danger and vaporized his online presence”.

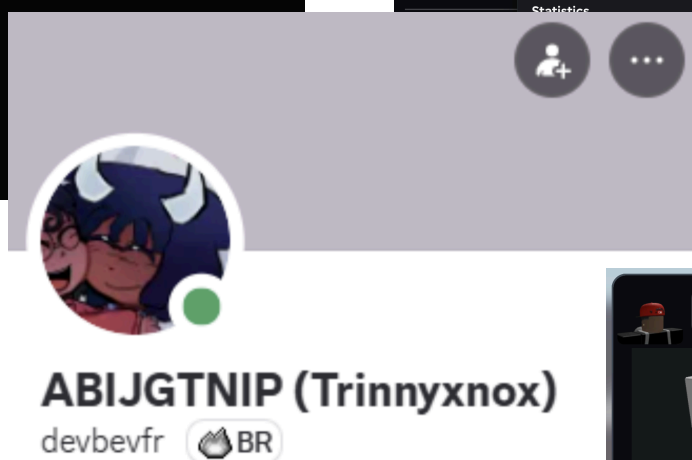

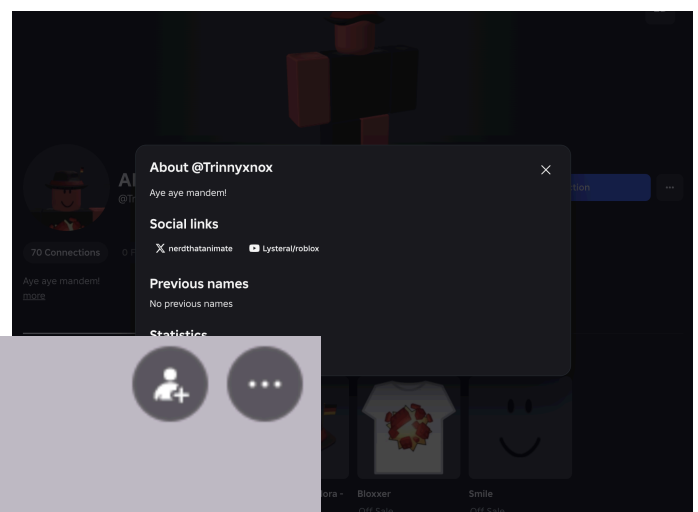

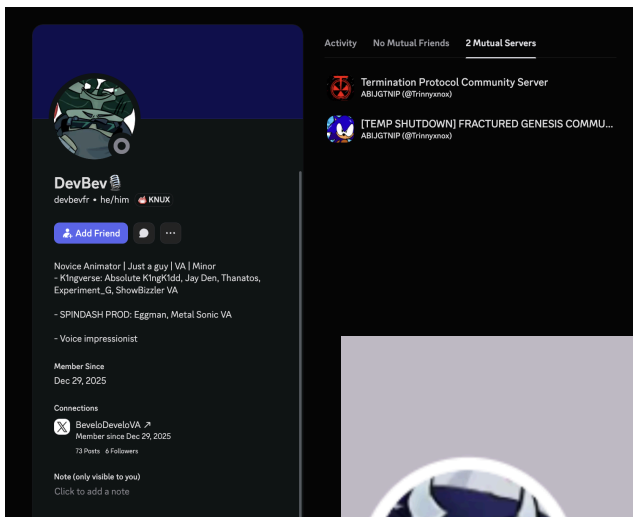

He has also said some stuff regarding me inside the Kingverse server, calling me racist. Bevdev has also said “why not just make them (paperpal) fully black hm??”, which is just ableist and racist, having vitiligo doesn’t mean you’re no longer a person of colour.

If you look at their servers before he removed it, it shows their Roblox account, called “TrinnynxnoX”/”ABIJGTNIP”, if you looked at their linked accounts, it shows 2 accounts, “nerdthatanimate On Twitter” & “Lysteral On Youtube”. If you didn’t know, Geno used to impersonate Lysteral, which I fully exampled in Chapter 6 of my old document, which you can read here: What Actually Happened

Roblox Profile:

<https://www.roblox.com/users/8038870351/profile?friendshipSourceType=PlayerSearch#!#about>

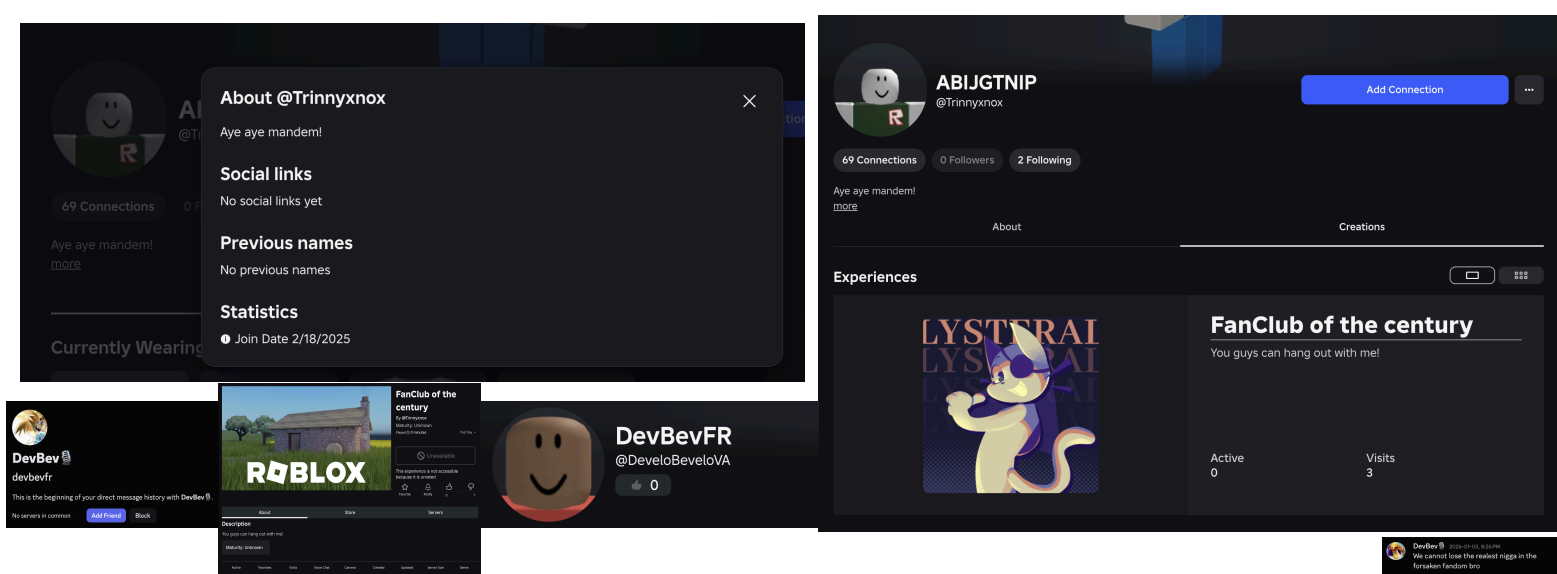

One of Geno’s avatars also shares the same name as Bev’s username.

The links were shortly removed on the profile and Bevdev's Discord, he also switched Roblox accounts after I told Shackles about it, but there's still some stuff on the account that points to Bevdev owning it:

Game Link:

This is from a website called Doogle, that's used to check for alt accounts. It shows 4 accounts, being broourfdd, devbevfr, kor70952, shackledsimply, and genoinitiated2k.

Broourfdd was "Bevdev's" original account, Kor70952 was the impersonator account run by "Geno", and Devbevfr is Bevdev's new account.

All of these accounts were made on the same wifi, meaning that either Bevdev lives with Geno and Shackles, or that they are all the same person.

If I'm correct, this means that Geno and his wife Shackles are not real people, and that Bevdev has been pretending to be those fake people for over a year now, Jason (their "child"), may also be another lie by Bevdev.

Bevdev was also active during Geno's "attempt" (January 5th), leading to it being faked, and to get out of drama and make more people sympathize with them.

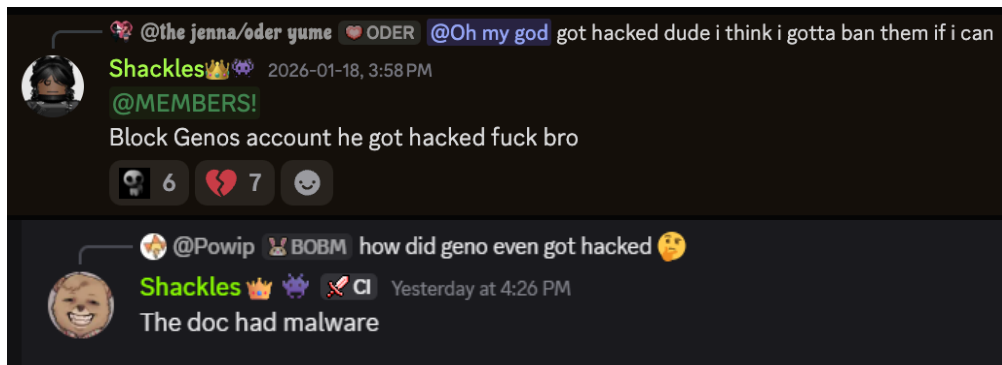

Geno's Discord "Hack"

Chapter 4: Geno's Discord "Hack"

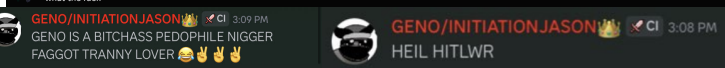

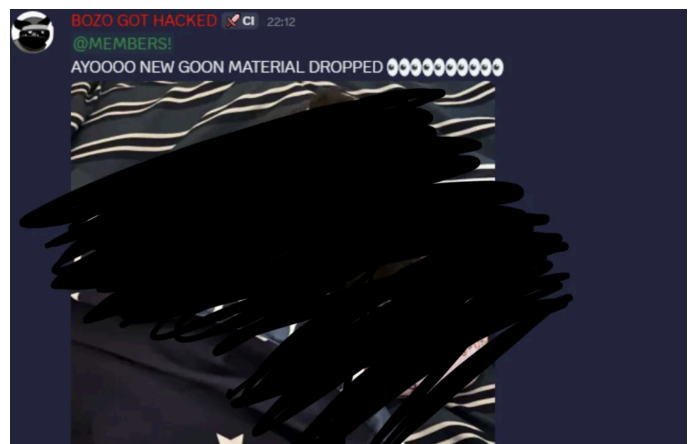

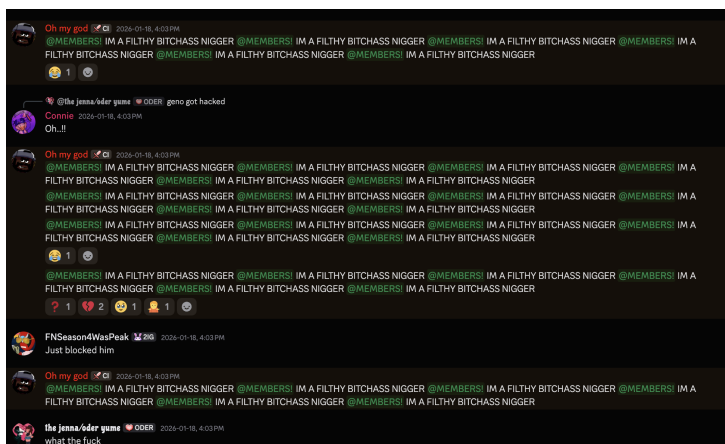

(TW: Slurs, Censored NSFW, & Disturbing Topics)

This chapter will go over Geno's Discord account being "hacked".

Geno's Discord account was "hacked" on April 18th, Shackles said that it was hacked since the document had "malware" in it.

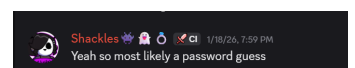

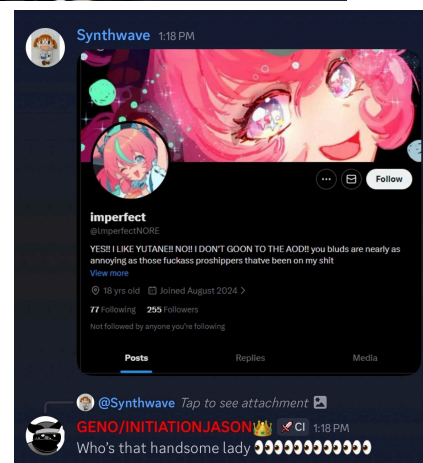

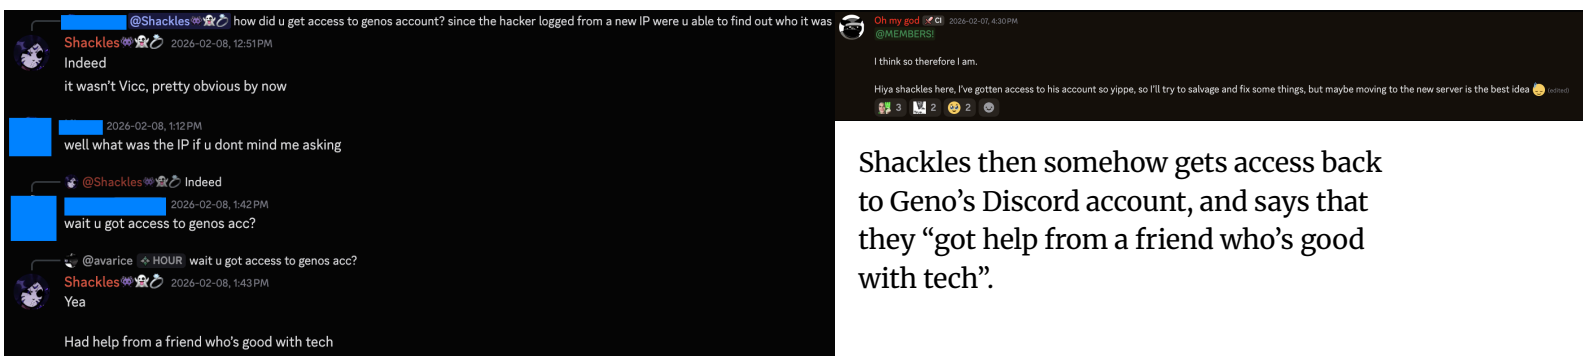

During the raid, the "hacker" on Geno's account sent slurs, NSFW, and made a sexual comment about an infant baby.

During the raid, the hacker tries to make it like they are Vicc.

After people realized that malware on a Google document was impossible, Shackles said it was a password guess, but later (after the raid stopped) Shackles confirms that it wasn't them, but never says who it might've been.

Shackles then somehow gets access back to Geno’s Discord account, and says that they “got help from a friend who’s good with tech”.

From what Geno has been doing in the past, and when this was happening, the original @/K1ngverseburner document released, this “hack” most likely happened in response to it and to also make the community sympathize more with Geno.

The person who also made the original @/K1ngverseburner document, Frecklewish, has also made a document debunking the claims that Geno has made against them, such as them being a “proshipper” and how Vicc “hacked” and “doxxed” Geno.

(I still would like to clarify that I do not condone the ways they handled that situation, I just want to straighten the facts so misinformation isn’t being spread)

Miscellaneous Information

Extra Chapter: Miscellaneous Information

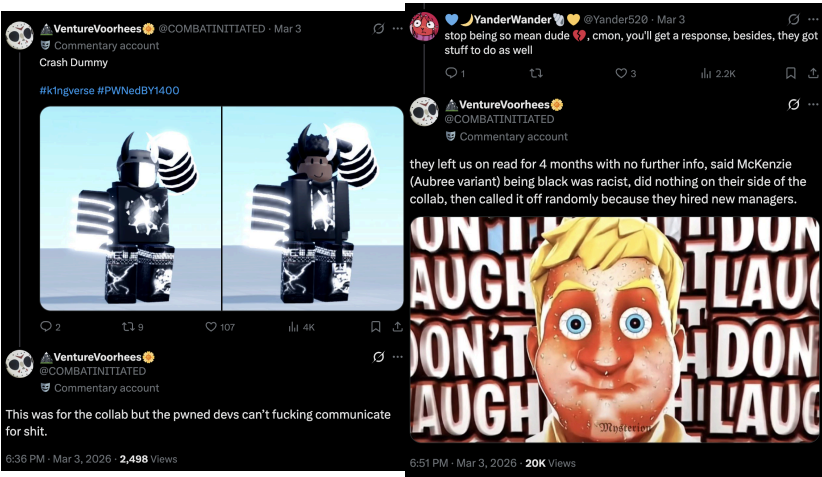

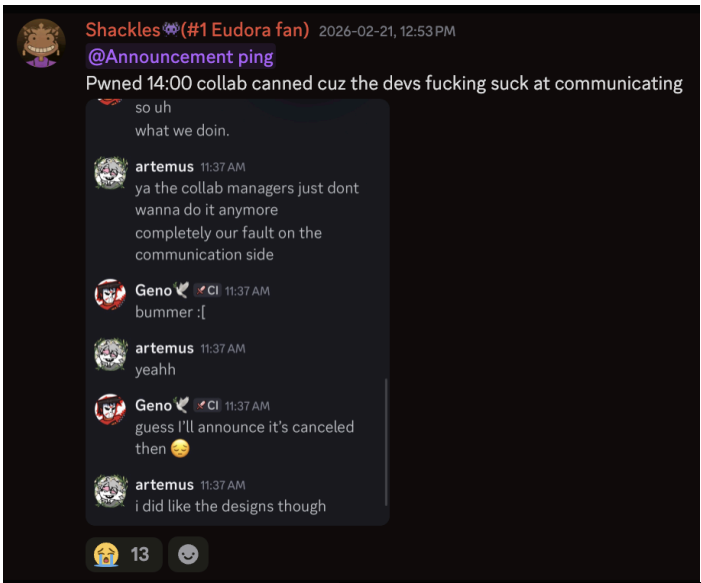

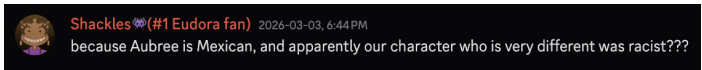

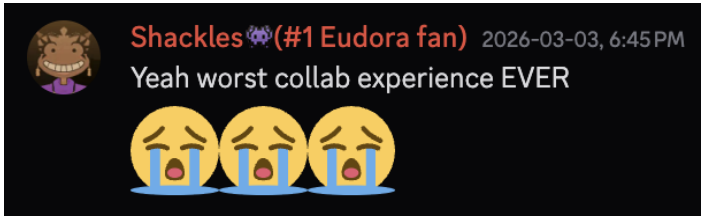

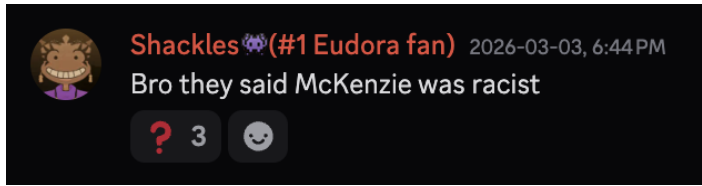

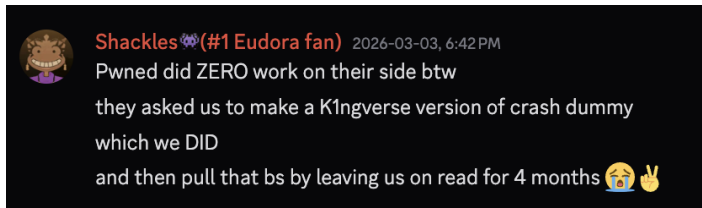

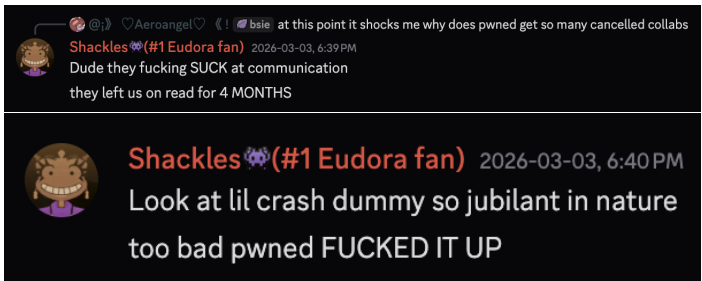

This chapter will go over other miscellaneous things that I want to bring up that don't fit in the last few chapters, everything here isn't in order of when it happened.

Geno's Roblox account was active when he was meant to be in the hospital, changing avatars and getting badges from games, Shackles has also been using his account, but has said only their "younger relatives" has been on the account as said by Shackles themselves.

It isn't Geno, Geno quite literally can't use social media as much, any social media activity from his TikTok and etc is because of younger relatives being on his phone,

After the cancellation of the Kingverse X PWNED By 14:00 collab, Shackles went to announce it and make a couple tweets about it on their Twitter and Discord server, saying it was was cause “the devs fucking suck at communicating”.

After that, the co-director of PWNED By 14:00 had to get involved, here's what they said:

Lastly, a tweet Geno made claims two people were being racist to him in DMs, but if you brighten the censored text, it shows that both messages are from the Lysteral Impersonator account (laretsyL), which is owned by himself.

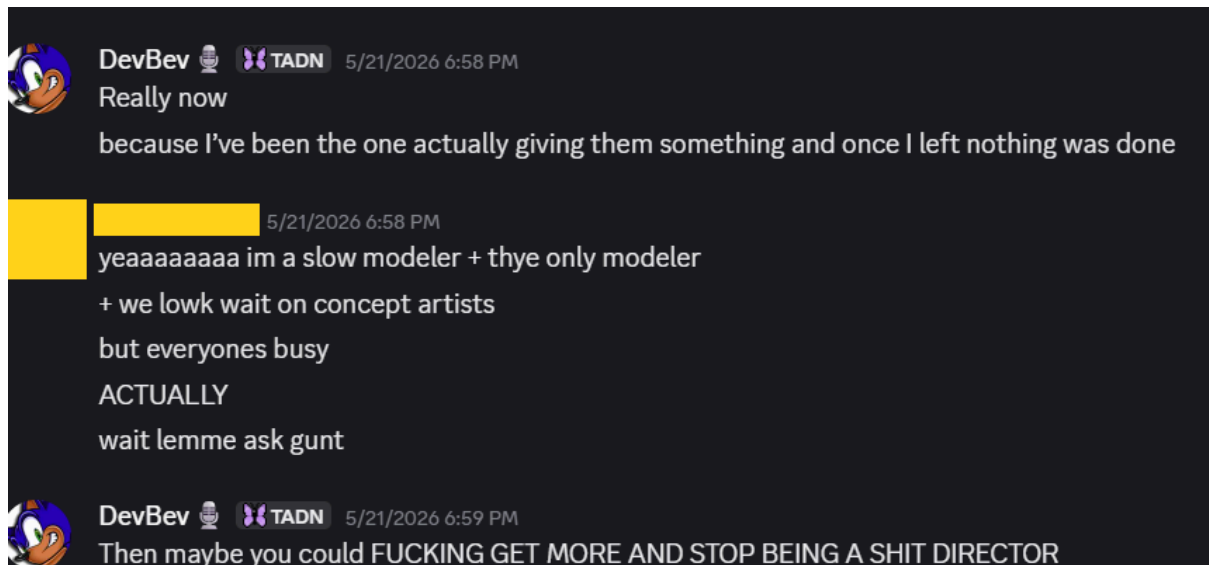

Update 1:

Messages from the K1ngverse server showing that Bev only cared about the popularity.

Update 5:

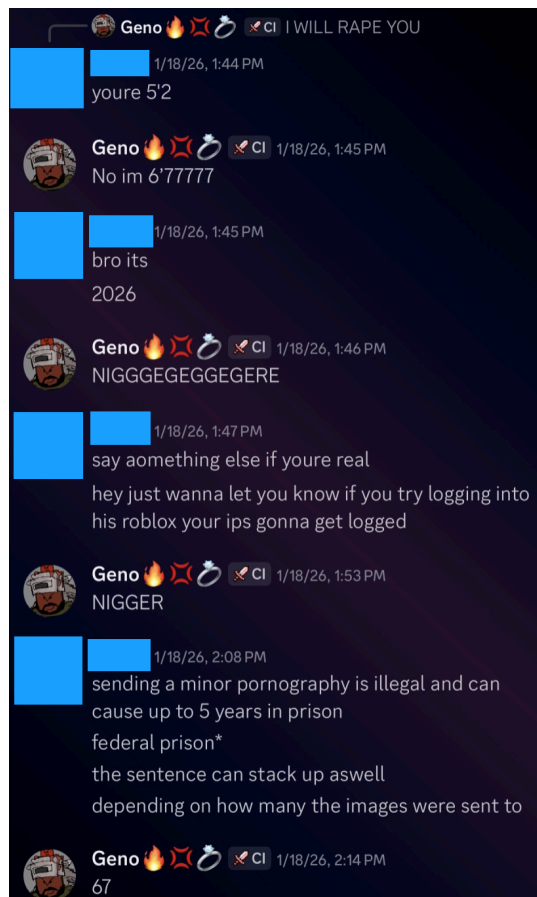

Another message from the K1ngverse server showing Bevdev harassing a team member.

Update 6:

A person recently DMed me, showing me a DM they received from Geno when they were said to be "hacked", which again was most likely staged.

Geno also sent Prosaken art, but it was deleted after the person said they could be sent to prison for sending pornography to a minor.

What has Happened after this Document Released?

Chapter 6: What has Happened after this Document Released?

So far, I've only made 2 updates (besides this), adding 4 more screenshots in the Extra Chapter and calling out that he was being ableist to my character "Paperpal".

Here's what Bevdev has said after the document was released.

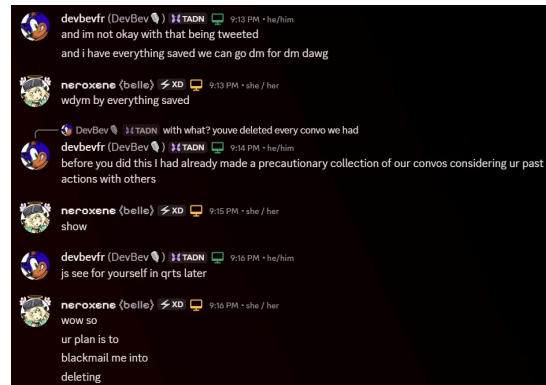

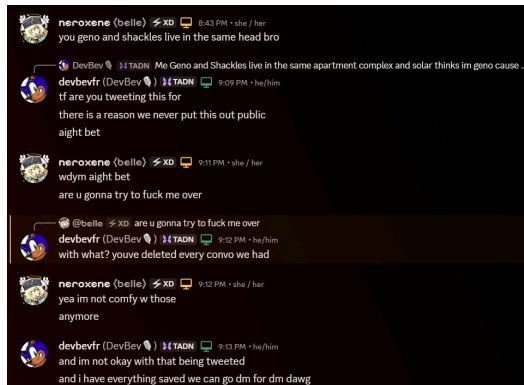

He has said that he'll be returning with "probably the greatest defense ever conceived", but someone DMed him asking why they shared the same wifi, Bevdev responded by saying that "Geno and Shackles live in the same apartment complex", but providing no proof whatsoever.

He also DMed me after the document was released.

The same person who asked, Belle, is currently threatened into being blackmailed by Bevdev, as he's said he'll release private DMs.

For the people wondering, here's all of Bevdev's alt accounts that I know of.

At 8:45 PM EST on the same day, Bevdev made an apology thread, “apologizing” for what he had done.

Thread: <https://x.com/BeveloDeveloVA/status/2066321061415657495>

BevDev!! @BeveloDeveloVA · 51s

I apologize to everyone I've hurt, broken the trust of or straight-up have lied to, you have every right not to forgive me.

I have made terrible choices and I regret alot of them.

BevDev!! @BeveloDeveloVA · 51s

It all got out of hand so quickly, I chose to continue on, chasing any kind of clout I could get which meant lying about who I really was to be taken seriously, bringing down others and downright being a total dickhead this account was an attempt to slowly but surely inch-away-

BevDev!! @BeveloDeveloVA · 50s

-from that and make a name for myself in something I was actually good at, Voice Acting, because CAC designs and working on Kingverse wasn't cutting it for me, I just didn't know how I could still be well known without it, as my voicework showcases always flopped when the @COMBATINITIATED account got hacked, I found my excuse to finally move on away from it and start from scratch, but I still screwed it up, repeating my behavior.

I also want to personally apologize to Solarroom for how I've affected their mental state, they have every right to hate me.

I will be taking a break from all this and just focus on myself and who I am.

Update 3:

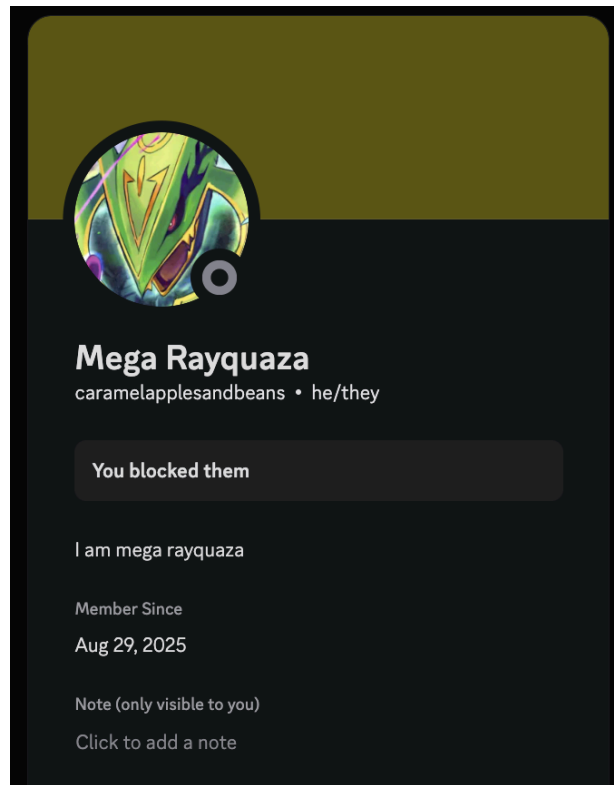

The “odacova2007_32287” account has changed their username to “bingobangobungobongo”, with a “quote from Shadow”.

But Bevdev forgot to remove the links connected to the Odacova2007 ARG.
So it seems like Bevdev won’t actually be taking a break, and has yet again lied.

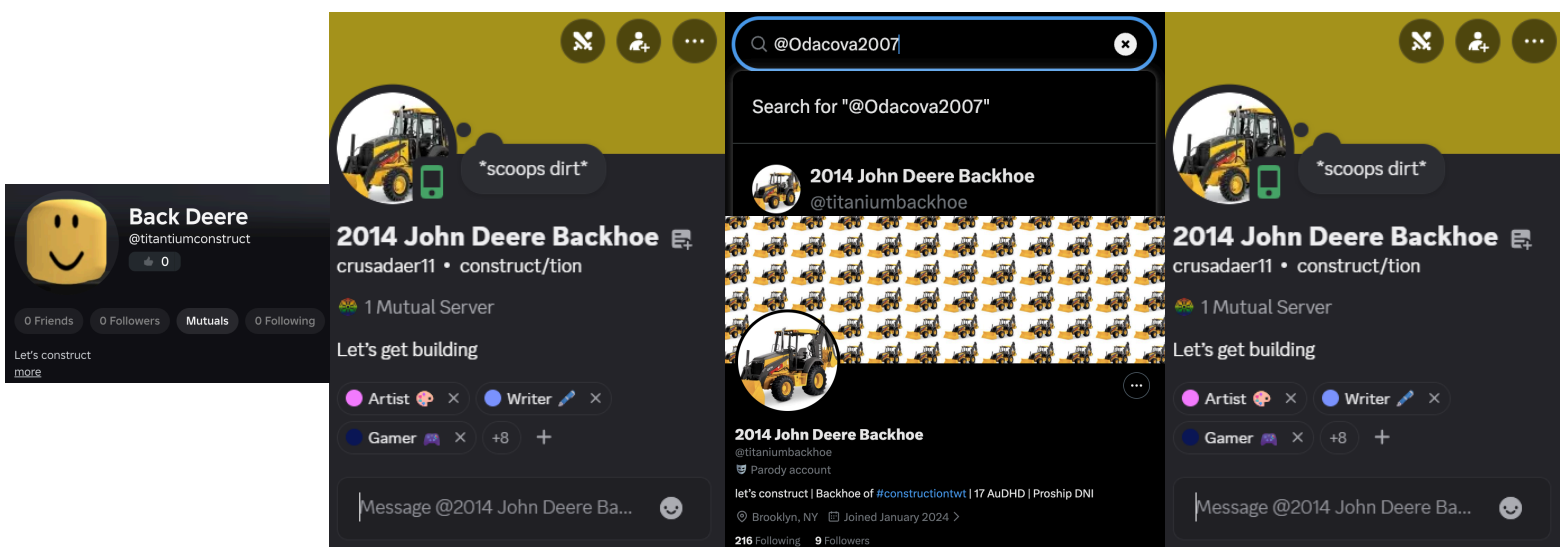

Update 4:

He did it again, and the account is now called “caramelapplesandbeans”, he has also removed the links.

Update 8:

Bevdev has once again made another alt account, now using a new Discord and Roblox account, but used the same Twitter account @/Odacova2007. They also joined the new UnitedCore Discord server (before getting banned), having the artist and writer roles, seemingly trying to get rehired to UnitedCore. Bevdev has now tried to come back 3 times, so I can probably say they sadly aren't trying to change, and will continue to try to return. If you would like to see their accounts, I've added them to the alt accounts list above.

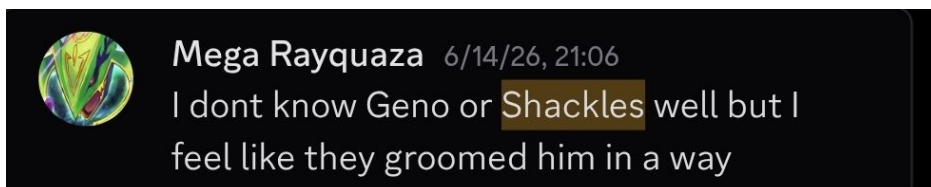

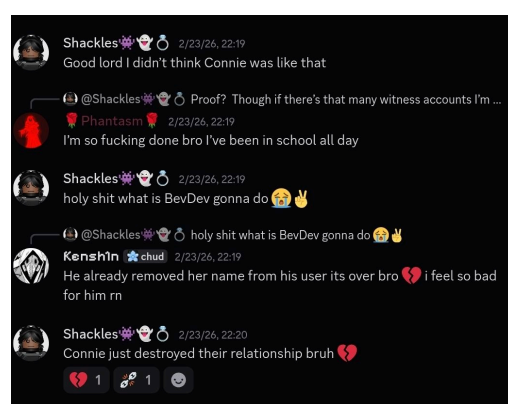

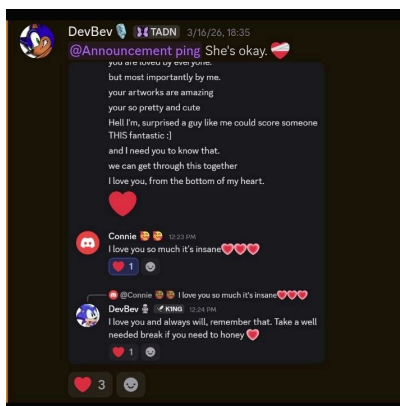

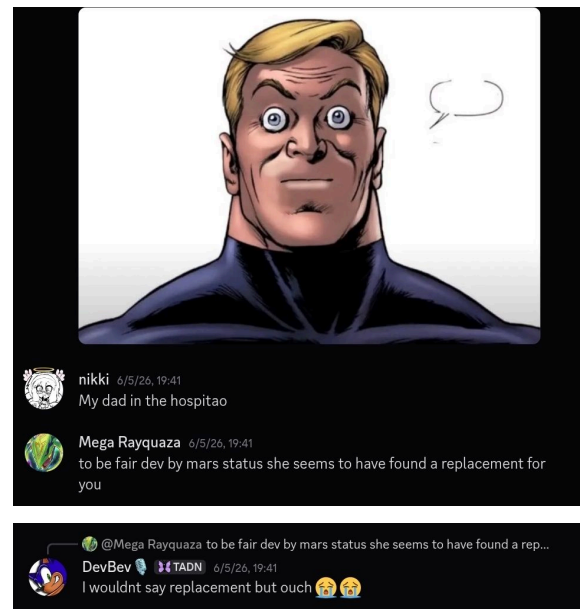

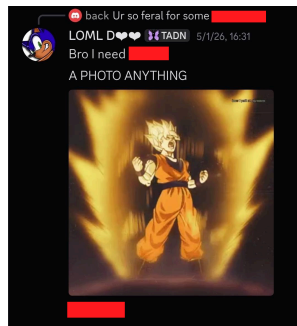

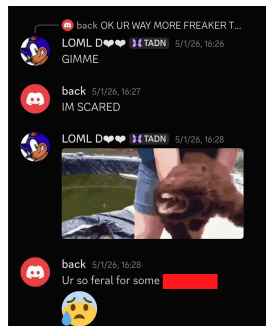

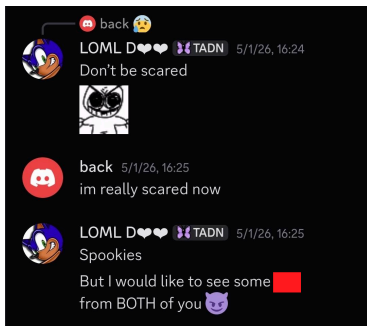

Update 9:

Information by: blueberrycrumblepie/Appl (One of Bev's EXs)

(TW: Disturbing Topics)

Appl was the first person who started to date Bevdev, as of June 17 she's 14. Bevdev has done many uncomfortable, weird and disgusting things to her, such as:

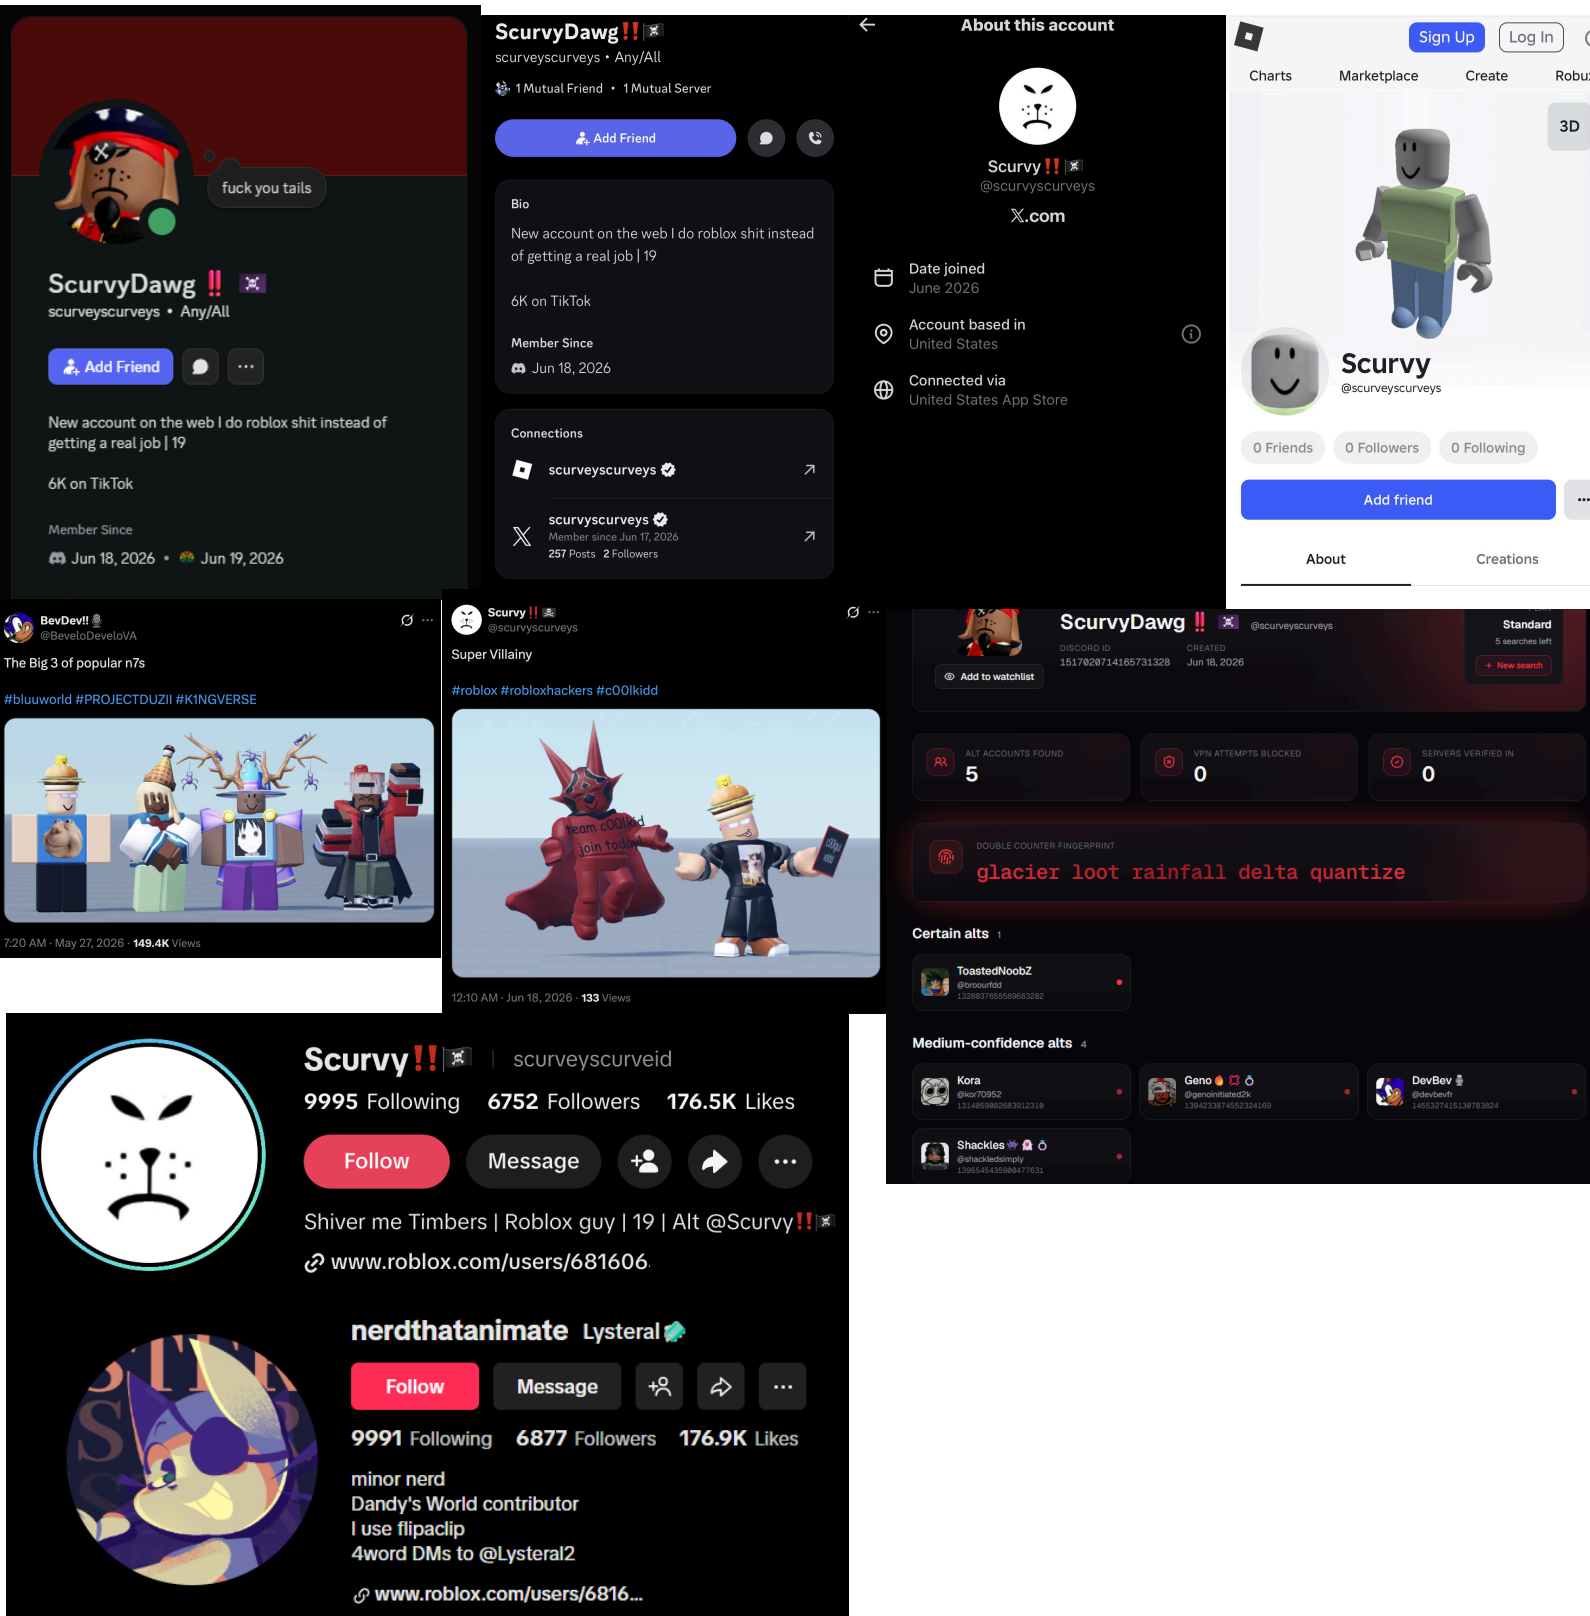

- Begged Appl into sending him n*des.
- Took advantage of Appl's hypersexuality and flashed her. (There isn't any proof as she says when RedT, Bevdev's second EX, joined the group chat, Bev deleted the images)
- Used the @/Odacova2007 (Now caramelapplesandbeans) alt account to shame Appl and make her feel/look bad after breaking up with him.
- Leaked Appl's DMs in front of the whole K1ngverse Discord server without her permission to look like a "good boyfriend" while she was on the brink of attempting.
- Accused Bevdev of being groomed by Geno and Shackles while Bevdev was the one saying it, but on his alt account @/Odacova2007, now @/caramelapplesandbeans.
- Shamed Appl on the Shackles account after being blackmailed into drawing NSFW art by an ex-friend.

Appl never knew that Bevdev was Geno and Shackles, even after dating him for over 3 months.

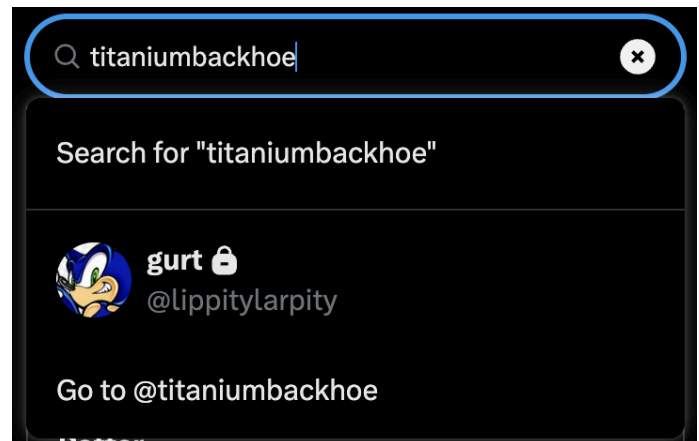

Update 10:

Bevdev has now made new alt accounts on Discord, Roblox, Twitter and Tiktok, Doogle can still tell that it's Bevdev, their rendering style is the exact same as Bev's style, and their Tiktok account was originally Geno's Lysteral impersonator account. I've added all of the accounts to the alt account list above.

Update 11:
(TW: Slurs)

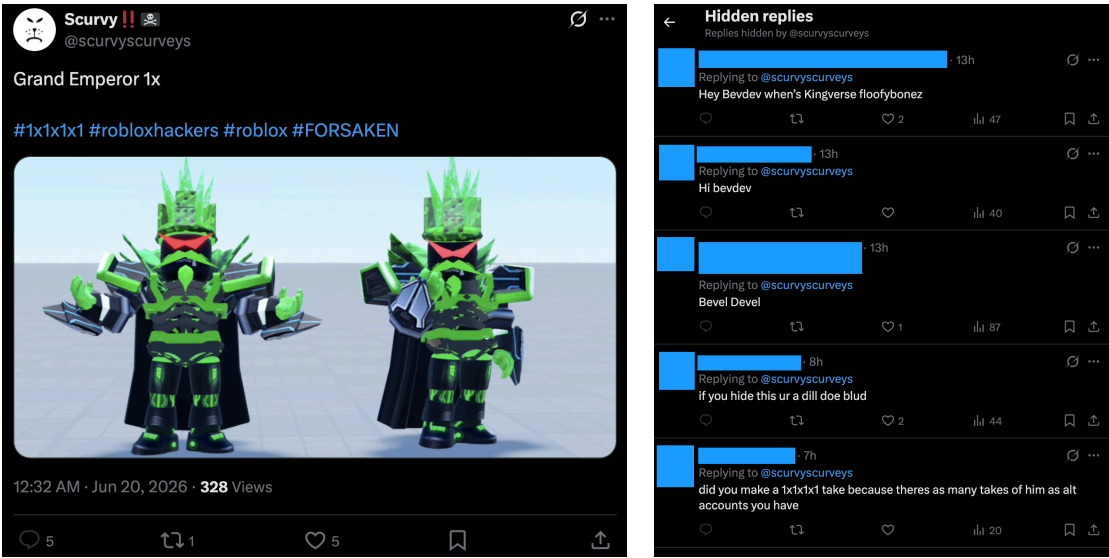

Bevdev has rebranded the titaniumbackhoe Twitter account into “lippitylarpity”, meant to be Bevdev’s “private account”, the link was also changed into a website with 2 slurs.

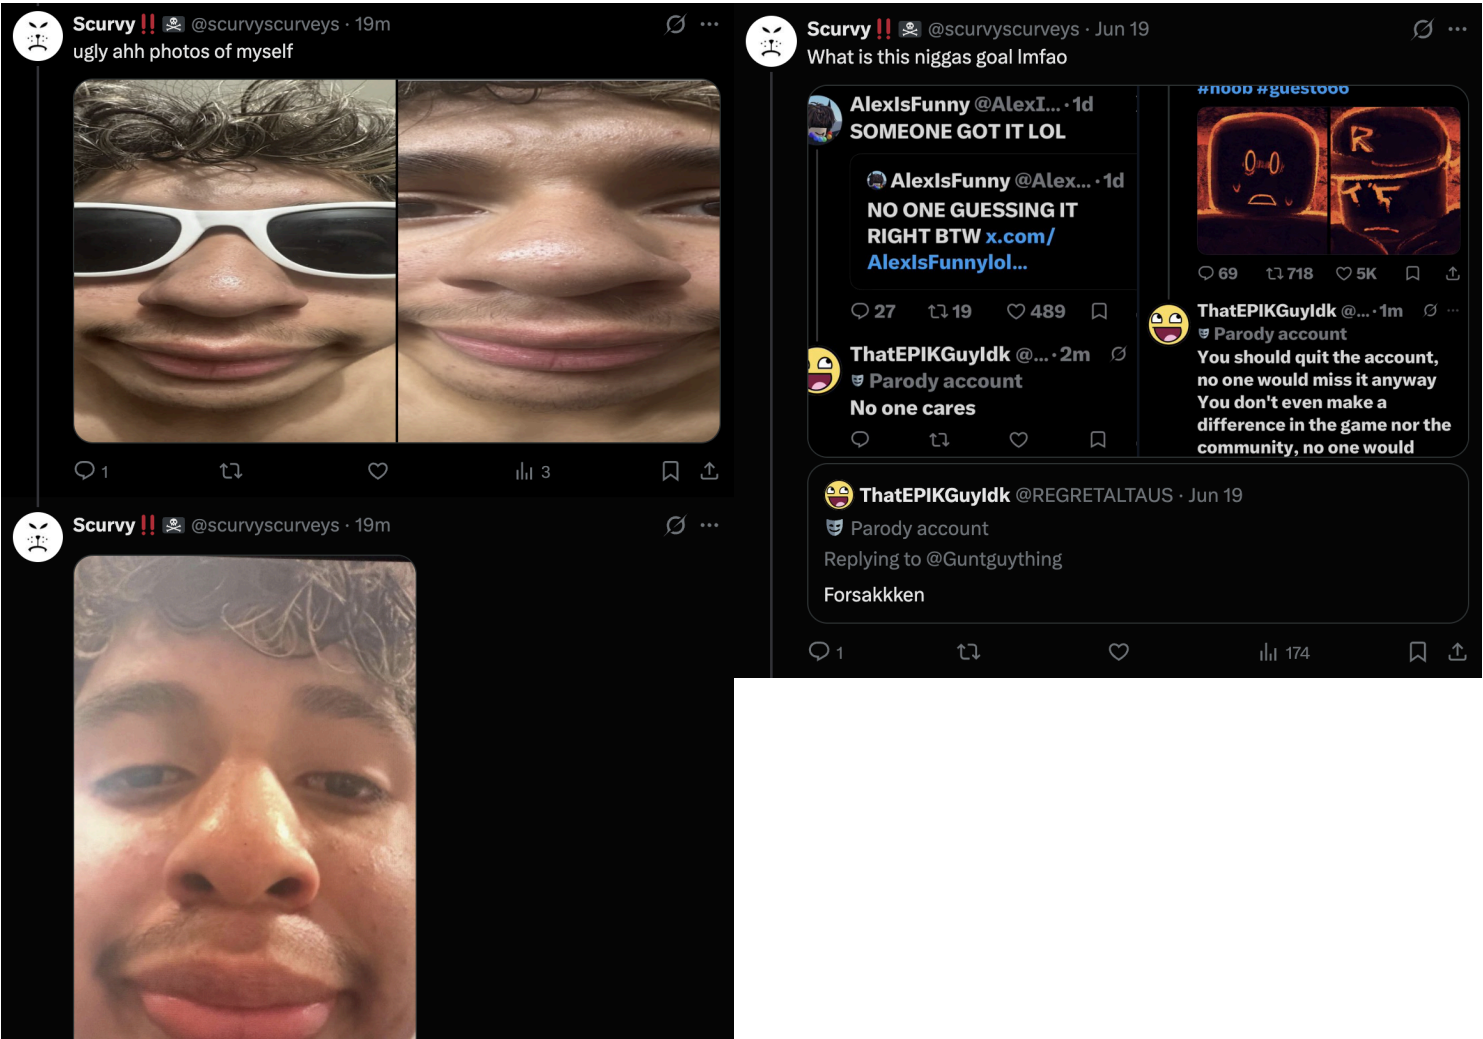

Meanwhile, Bevdev has tried to make it like “scurveyscurveys” isn’t him, he also made a post on the scurveyscurveys account in Japanese for some reason.

He's also hiding tweets that are talking about how they're Bevdev.

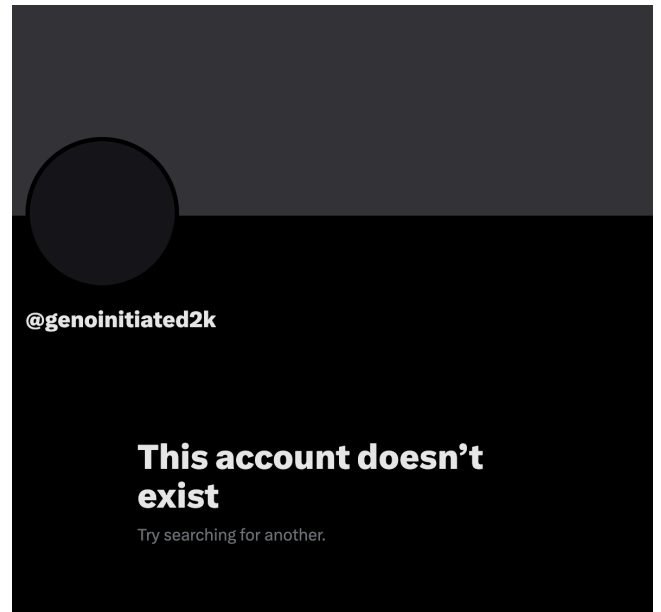

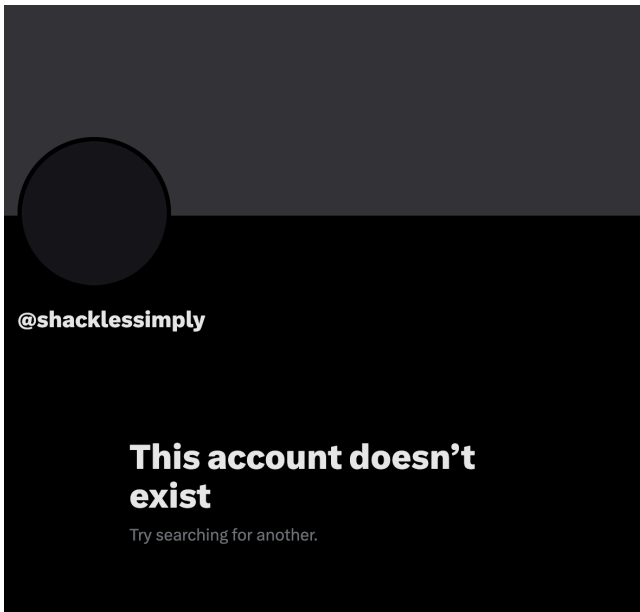

And now, he's trying to make it like he isn't black, showing pictures of some random dude, despite saying the N-word previously on the same account.

The image displays a side-by-side comparison of two Roblox user profiles. On the left is the profile for 'Scurvy!!' (@scurvyscurveys), which has a dark theme and a white cat-like avatar. It shows a 'Date joined' of June 2026, an account based in the United States, and connected via the United States App Store. Below the profile is a screenshot of a Roblox game with the title '#PROJECTDUZII #KINGVERSE' and a timestamp of 7:20 AM - May 27, 2026, with 149.4K views. The game shows four avatars in a virtual world. On the right is the profile for 'nerdthatanimate' (Lysteral), which has a light theme and a colorful anime-style avatar. It shows a 'Date joined' of December 2025, an account based in the United States, and connected via the United States App Store. Below the profile is a screenshot of a Roblox game with the title '#roblox #robloxhackers #c00lkidd' and a timestamp of 12:10 AM - Jun 18, 2026, with 133 views. The game shows two avatars, one in a red devil costume and one in a black and white outfit, in a virtual world.

Update 12:

Bevdev has deactivated both Geno's and Shackles' Twitter accounts.

Conclusion

Conclusion:

TLDR: Bevdev has been pretending to be Geno and Shackles for over a year now, Geno, Shackles and their child were never real, Geno's Discord account was never hacked, Geno's suicide attempt was staged, is an ableist, threatened to r*pe a minor, sent NSFW/Prosaken artwork to minors, made a sexual comment about an infant baby, harassed many people under countless alt accounts, said many slurs, leaked private DMs, and lastly took advantage of his now ex-partner.

Bevdev has said they'll be taking a break from all socials to hopefully focus and improve on himself, but has since made 3 alt accounts, K1ngverse will continue under a rebrand called "UnitedCore", and is now owned by @/donttearuppleas and @/KiriVault.

Please do not harass Bevdev or anyone else who works on K1ngverse, despite the horrendous things Bev's done, Bevdev is only 15 years old, and stuff like harassment and death threats should never be sent to anyone.

Again, If you have any questions, concerns or anything I may have gotten wrong, you can let me know on Discord or Twitter, my Discord is @/solarroom and my Twitter is @/solar_room.
