

Course: Human Psychology and Family Sociology 1,2		Course #1154, 1155
Credits: 1	Commitment: Two Semester course	Grade: 9-10
A-G Category: meets "G" requirement	Estimated Homework Time: 20 minutes per night
Level of Difficulty:	☒ Moderate	Difficult Very Difficult
Recommended Prerequisite: None

Course Description:

This course covers the physical, cognitive, and psychosocial development of the child through adolescence, as well as the structure of the family, its composition and culture. Cross-cultural social influences and values to the family are recognized and analyzed. Programs of study and exploration include careers in the Education, Child Development, and Family Services industry sector. This course is designed to reinforce core academic content areas and California Career Technical Education model curriculum standards in a relevant, applied setting, appropriate to the subject and grade level.

This course meets a "G" requirement (college prep elective) for the UC/CSU A-G standards.

Recommended Skills:

Reading, writing, and working collaboratively are the necessary skills for a student to be successful in this class.