Part 2: Read the e-mail and answer the following questions.(1.0 p)

Dear Phong,

I'm sorry I couldn't write to you earlier because I was very busy. Now, we're staying in a small hotel near a shopping area in District 10. Near my hotel, there's a cinema, a bank, a supermarket and some cafés. There are some big shops at the end of the street. It is also very noisy here because there's always a lot of traffic, day and night.

In my hometown, I live in a quieter street. There are some small shops, a school and a market in my neighborhood but there isn't a park and a cinema. The streets are narrower but they are cleaner and there isn't so much traffic. The air is much fresher, too. And every house has a backyard and a front yard.

Love,

Minh

Viet Nam's New Year is celebrated according to the Lunar calendar. It is officially known as Tet. It begins at the end of January or early February. The exact date changes from year to year. Vietnamese people usually make preparations for the holiday several weeks beforehand. They tidy their houses and cook special food. On the New Year's Eve, people sit up to midnight to see the New Year in, then they put on new clothes and give one another the greeting of the season. Tet lasts ten days. The first three days are the most important. Vietnamese people believe that how people act during those days will have influence the whole year. As a result, they make every effort to avoid arguments and smile as much as possible.
