

SENATOR DURBIN: NO MORE DELAY. ISSUE THE SUBPOENAS TODAY

AS OF 2/23

Message

- Chairman Durbin: No more delays – issue subpoenas today.
 - It's been 85+ days since the Senate Judiciary Committee authorized subpoenas for Harlan Crow and Leonard Leo as part of their investigation into Supreme Court corruption.
 - There is absolutely no reason for delay. The American people deserve to know how the ultra wealthy like Crow and Leo are using their money to buy off Supreme Court justices and influence their decisions.
 - Chairman Durbin has the power to issue subpoenas right now. Every day that goes by without him acting is another day that MAGA justices and their benefactors can hide their influence-peddling and corruption.
 - This extreme Supreme Court is on the verge of decisions concerning ballot qualification for President Trump, whether or not judges can take more power away from federal agencies' ability to protect Americans, and more – and Chairman Durbin owes it to the American people to expose their corruption and MAGA influence before it's too late.
