

Dr. Ibraheem Mikail Abiola was a research fellow at the Centre for Migration Studies, Nnamdi Azikiwe University, Awka, Nigeria and now a lecturer at the Department of History and International Studies, University of Ilorin, Ilorin, Nigeria. Ibraheem majors in Migration and Islamic History. He graduated with B. A honors in Dawah and Usul Deen from Islamic University of Madinah, Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, then proceeded M.sc and PhD at International University, Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia, he has published in many scholarly journals with Scopus indexed inclusive. Dr. Ibraheem has supervised over forty undergraduate research projects, he has attended and presented actively in over twenty International conferences in countries like Brunei, Nigeria, Qatar, United Arab Emirates, Saudi Arabia, Malaysia. Recently, he is invited to present an academic paper in the 4th OIC/IRCICA, Awqaf SA International Conference on the Representation of Prophet Mohammad (SAW) in Islamic Scholarship and Literature in Africa hosted in Cape Town, South Africa.