

Visit the shop and buy a camera first, without it you can't start quests.

If you have absolutely no money left, you can always earn 50 bucks by taking photos in the park where there is no one there and selling them in the Office.

If you have less than 30 bucks at the end of the day, then you will meet the landlord, and will be forced to ask her for forgiveness in any way

In the park you can find Penelope. She doesn't go there every day.

In the creative center you can find Clementine, she goes there three times a week.

In the auto showroom you will meet Elizabeth.

To start the quests with Penelope and Clementine you will need additional items that you can buy in a store or flea market

To start the quest with Elizabeth you need to buy a broken flogger, fix it (in inventory) and sell it (by clicking on it). Then Elizabeth will visit you the next day

After the army quest with Elizabeth, go to the library and talk to Grace

After the SCI FI quest, offer Elizabeth a photo shoot with another girl. This will start after choosing the correct question in the dialogue with her

After each photo shoot, you need to sell the photo in the office. Without this, you won't be able to start a new quest.

In the office, you can check photo session requests menu, this will help you understand what quests are still available

At the beginning of the game, the Pharmacy and Sex Shop will be closed. They will be available once the player reaches level 5

After a photo shoot with Elizabeth in an army uniform, go to the library, there will be a new quest there.

Next time you can blackmail Grace

At some point you will have to investigate the betrayal. A few days after this, a large box will be delivered to you.

To train a slave, select TRAIN SLAVE. You will have to sign a contract with her first, if it is not signed then this quest will begin automatically.

After signing the contract, you will be able to force the slave to work. This way it will start generating passive income.

If slaves are not trained or punished for a long time, they become disobedient and cease to generate income. Train them or punish them to fix it.

After some time, Ophelia will visit you and after a party with he, you will receive an invitation to the Gentlemen's Club

To get a second invitation to the Gentlemen's Club, talk to Ophelia in the office and complete a special quest with Chloe (in the Chloe Training menu)
