

Case Western Reserve University School of Law
Law Review Symposium: Judicial Conduct, Ethics & Reform
Friday, November 3, 2023

9:30 AM - Welcome and Introduction

10:00-12:00 PM – Panel 1: Judicial Speech and Transparency in State Courts

- Judge Stephen Dillard, Georgia Court of Appeals
 - Judges and Social Media
- Douglas Keith, Senior Counsel in the Judiciary Program at the Brennan Center
 - Political Realities of State Supreme Courts
- Sarah Cravens, Visiting Professor at Washington and Lee University School of Law
 - Off the Record: Transparency Challenges in Judicial Misconduct and Discipline
- Steven Chien, Professor at Cleveland State University College of Law
 - Open Court and Social Trust
- Adam Sopko, Staff Attorney at the University of Wisconsin Law School's State Democracy Research Initiative
 - Invisible Adjudication in State Supreme Courts

12:00-1:00 PM – LUNCH BREAK

1:00-3:00 PM – Panel 2: Ethics and Reform in Federal Courts

- Rakesh K. Anand, Professor at Syracuse University College of Law
 - A Professionally Responsible Supreme Court?
- Dawn Chutkow, Visiting Professor of Law at Cornell University and Executive Editor of the Journal of Empirical Legal Studies
 - The Rulemakers: An Empirical Analysis of the Chief Justice's Appointments to the Judicial Conference Rules Committees
- Tim Schnabel, Executive Director of the Uniform Law Commission
 - Amending the Constitution: Supreme Court Term Limits
- Jonathan Entin, David L. Brennan Professor Emeritus of Law at Case Western Reserve University School of Law
 - Judicial Ethics and Judicial Competence
- Judge Margaret McKeown, Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals
 - Looking Back: What We Can Learn from History

3:00 - 3:15 p.m. - Closing Remarks

Speaker Bios

