

DREAM | Module 1. Fact-checking

1) Please indicate the first initial of your name and surname with your birthday year
(For example John Smith = J.S. 2014)

2) What actions would you do to verify the news?

- ☐ Check the source, analyze the content and look beyond
- ☐ Check the source, analyze the content and share them with my friends
- ☐ Check the source, analyze the content and block the account

3) What is the best tool for checking whether other websites have already used an image?

- ☐ Tinyeye
- ☐ Google lens
- ☐ Wayback Machine

4) What is a website's domain?

- ☐ A website's address on the internet
- ☐ The website registration document
- ☐ The information at the bottom of the website

5) After completing the lessons, your approach to online information is:

- ☐ More sceptical
- ☐ More confident
- ☐ Unchanged

6) In your opinion, what is the best way to combat online disinformation?

DREAM | Module 2. Synthetic Media

1) Please indicate the first initial of your name and surname and your birthday year
(For example John Smith = J.S. 2014)

2) What are the phases of producing synthetic media?

- ☐ Training set data, Deep learning, latent space, generation and output
- ☐ Scripting, filming, editing, and distribution
- ☐ Training data, Editing and Production

3) How often do you think you come across synthetic media when you're online?

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
---	---	---	---	---	---	---	---	---	----

4) What is the meaning of "AI slop"?

- ☐ Low-quality AI-generated content (like weird images or spam articles)
- ☐ Video content altered with AI
- ☐ A technical error that happens with AI systems

5) AI tool detection tools are infallible

- ☐ True
- ☐ False

6) Could you name one risk and one benefit of using synthetic media?

--

DREAM | Module 3. Manipulation Techniques

Please indicate the first initial of your name and surname and your birthday year (For example John Smith = J.S. 2014)

7) In media literacy, what is a manipulation?

- ☐ A biased distortion of the truth, using altered or partial information to steer public opinion for one's own interests
- ☐ An incorrect information spread without intention to harm
- ☐ An incorrect information generated through an AI tool

8) What is misinformation?

- ☐ Incorrect or misleading information shared by accident, because the person thinks it is true
- ☐ Wrong information shared on purpose to trick people and cause harm deliberately
- ☐ Accurate and verified news shared by professional journalists to inform the public

9) Manipulated content always starts with a false news story:

- ☐ True
- ☐ False

10) After completing the lessons, your approach to online information is:

- ☐ More sceptical
- ☐ More confident
- ☐ Unchanged

11) Which method would you recommend to your parents (or caregivers) to spot online manipulation?

